SPECIAL TOWN MEETING

January 4, 1934

Pursuant to the within warrant a special meeting of the inhabitants of the Town of Weymouth, represented by its duly elected and qualified Town Meeting Members was held at the Hall of the Weymouth High School, East Weymouth, on Thursday evening, the fourth day of January, A. D. 1934.

The meeting was called to order at seven o'clock and fifty minutes in evening by George L. Barnes, Annual Moderator.

The Moderator in well chosen words paid respect to the memory of Albert Hollis of Braintree and who lately passed to the great beyond. Mr. Hollis for a number of years reported the doings of the town meetings and represented the Town of Weymouth for a daily newspaper.

The moderator then requested the Town Clerk to read the warrant for said meeting and the attestation of the Constable who served the warrant.

The Moderator requested Rev. George H. Elliot, Pastor of the Church of the Nativity, South Weymouth, to invoke Divine Blessing upon the deliberation of this meeting.

Mr. Raymond Litchfield was sworn as a Town Meeting Member.

Mr. Everett E. Callahan offered the following resolution:

Resolved: That, inasmuch as the Town of Weymouth feels justly proud of its Police Department, the Town Meeting Members, here assembled, do declare themselves opposed to any consolidation, or any attempt at consolidation, of our Police Department with that of any other municipality or that of the State.

Upon a voice vote the moderator declared the motion to adopt the resolution as lost. More than seven members having doubted the vote a recount was ordered. The moderator appointed Alfred C. Sheehy, A. Francis Rea and Howard M. Dowd as tellers and they were sworn to the faithful performance of that duty. The recount being taken the tellers reported 73 voting in the affirmative and 43 in the negative, the motion to adopt the resolution was declared carried.

ARTICLE 1. Mr. John W. Heffernan, Sec'y of the Appropriation Committee moved: That the Town instruct its Board of Water Commissioners to apply to the Public Works Administration of the federal government for a grant of $39,000. for the purpose of constructing a plant for filtering the Town's water supply. That if this grant is obtained, the Treasurer of the Town be and hereby is, for the same purpose authorized, with the approval of the selectmen, to borrow the sum of $94,000. and to issue bonds and notes of the Town therefor payable in accordance with Chapter 44 of the General Laws so that the whole shall be paid in not less than thirty years. That the Board of Water Commissioners be and hereby are authorized and instructed to proceed as soon as said funds are available with the construction of said filtration plant.

Mr. Heffernan moved to amend by striking out the word "Thirty" in the tenth line above and insert the word "twenty".

On motion of Judge Kenneth L. Nash, it was voted: That a recess be taken for the purpose of considering the article in the second special town meeting, which was called at 8:30 P. M. the meeting for the first meeting to reconvene at the call of the moderator.

The Moderator requested that the Town Clerk read the warrant and the attestation of the Constable who served the warrant for the special town meeting called for at 8:30 P. M.

ARTICLE 1. Mr. John W. Heffernan, sec'y of the Appropriation Committee moved: That the town raise and appropriate the sum of $1,500. for the collection of garbage in the town from Jan. 1, 1934 to April 1, 1934.

Mr. Albert L. Thibeault moved to amend by inserting the figures $576. instead of $1,500. Under the By-Laws, of Section 110. Art. 1 the largest sum was put to the question first. The question to raise and appropriate the sum of $1,500. was put before the meeting and it was voted, this sum being voted negatives the lesser amount on the amendment.

Voted to adjourn this special town meeting.

The first special meeting having been reconvened, the first question was the amendment of Mr. Heffernan, by striking out the word thirty and inserting in place thereof the word twenty, this was put before the meeting and it was so voted. Mr. Wallace H. Bicknell moved to amend the motion by striking out the figures $94,000. and inserting the figures $133,000. This amendment was put before the meeting and was declared not a vote.

The Motion of the Appropriation Committee as amended was then put before the meeting. Mr. Howard M. Dowd being a member of the Water Commissioners declined to serve as a teller while the vote is being taken.

The Moderator appointed Mr. James D. Bosworth in Mr. Dowd's place, he was sworn to the faithful performance of the duty.

The vote being taken the tellers reported 140 voting in the affirmative and 7 in the negative. More than two-thirds voting in the affirmative the motion was declared carried.

ARTICLE 2. Mr. John W. Heffernan, sec'y of the Appropriation Committee Moved: That the Moderator appoint a committee of five (5) to petition the General Court at this session for legislation to enable the Town to lay out, construct and maintain a system or systems of mains, drains and common sewers for the disposal of sewage, and to issue notes, bonds or script for the purpose of defraying the expense thereof.

Mr. Albert Silvester moved as an amendment: That instead of the Moderator appointing a committee of five that the Senator and Representative from this district be the Committee. This amendment was declared lost.

Mr. George E. Cunniff moved as an amendment: That this question be placed on the ballot at the Annual Town election. This was declared not a vote.

The motion of the Appropriation Committee was put before the meeting and was so voted.

Mr. John W. Heffernan, sec'y of the Appropriation Committee moved Further: For the purpose of submission to the voters of said town, This act shall take effect upon its passage and it shall take full effect upon its acceptance by the majority of the legal voters of said town, present and voting thereon by ballot in their respective precincts at a town meeting called for the purpose within five years after its passage. At such meeting there shall be placed upon the ballot the following question: 'Shall an act passed by the General Court in the year nineteen hundred and thirty-four entitled "An act authorizing the Town of Weymouth to construct and operate a system of sewers be accepted?"'.

No expenditures shall be made or liabilities incurred until such acceptance.

This question was put before the meeting and it was so voted.

The police stationed at the doors checked 144 Town Meeting Members as being present out of 287 eligible to membership. More than a legal quorum.

Voted at 9:30 to adjourn.

Under this article Mr. Charles Griffin of the Committee of six appointed March 27, 1933 was read, as follows:

PUBLIC WELFARE IN WEYMOUTH THROUGH 1933

The committee on Charities was appointed by the Town Moderator on March 27, 1933, pursuant to a vote of the Town Meeting Members, on Item 27, Article 1 at the Annual Town Meeting.

In the Moderator's letter to the various individuals, notifying them of the appointment to the Committee, he gave the following as his interpretation of the warrant noted:

"It is not my understanding that the vote of the town contemplates that this committee investigate and act upon each individual case of public welfare relief. It seems to me that it could be hardly assumed that your committee should be expected to devote that amount of time and effort. I should assume, however, that the purpose of the vote under which you have been appointed is to provide for the supervision and systematic handling of public charity to the end that all worthy cases of necessity may be suitably relieved and that the money of the taxpayers of Weymouth may be expended efficiently and economically. The vote does not define the exact duty or duties of your committee, but in view of the fact that the Town employs a "Welfare Worker", it would seem fair to assume that your committee not be charged with the duty of the investigation work of administering relief in individual cases, except of course, so far as you may desire to investigate such cases in order to determine that in general the principles and rules of administration of public charity that your committee may adopt are or are not being observed."

Accepting the above interpretation of the Moderator, the committee proceeded to function and during the year have held a considerable number of meetings, both independently and with the Board of Public Welfare, in an endeavor to find out facts relative to Welfare matters, as these affected the citizens of Weymouth, whether taxpayers or recipients of welfare, or both.

The committee is about to conclude its duties and it appears only fair to the citizens of Weymouth that some public statement should be forthcoming at this time from the Committee.

At the outset there was unanimity of opinion that it was the desire of the majority of the citizens to extend aid to such extent that no physical suffering should occur to anyone through lack of food, shelter and medical aid.

It was obvious that the impression was of greater magnitude than has been previously encountered. Consequently, demands for help from unexpected quarters and on a scale of such proportions that the ordinary channels provided for the administration of welfare failed.

Like most towns, Weymouth has dispensed welfare chiefly through each individual Selectman who also is a member of the Board of Public Welfare, but in recent years, as the depression came along, it was recognized that the limited time available for investigation and other welfare matters by the Selectmen was insufficient for economical handling of this department, and it was voted by the representatives of the town to authorize the Selectmen to appoint a Director of Public Welfare at an excellent salary to assist them in carrying on this burdensome work.

This committee readily understood that emergency conditions existed and appeared before the Selectmen with the determination to find out facts and then endeavor to assist the Board of Public Welfare and employees in a reorganization of the Department, and changing in some degree the system of keeping records, issuing grocery orders, paying rents, and investigating recipients of Welfare.

Definitely, the following are the recommendations of your committee and the action of the Selectmen took on such:

1. That the recipients of welfare aid have the right to choose where he will trade with his food orders. Favorably acted upon by the Board.

2. That the food orders be printed on a standard form, issued in triplicate for office control purposes, and issued by one party only—this party to be appointed by the Selectmen. Favorably acted on by the Board.

3. That the companies be held strictly to the list as printed, favorably acted on by the Board but no report as to any investigation has been made.

4. That a weekly report be made to the Board every week by the Welfare Supervisor on certain statistical data. Favorably acted on but casually acted on by the Board.

5. That a certain procedure be followed with new applicants. Favorably acted on by the Board.

6. That another assistant be given to the Director to assist her in this work. Favorably acted on by the Board.

7. That the police Department be used in the investigation of welfare recipients. Favorably acted on by the Board.

8. That all recipients of aid be made to work out all forms of aid received. Favorably acted on by the Board.

9. That the system of paying rents be revised. Favorably acted on by the Board.

10. That cash be substituted for the grocery orders only. Favorably acted on by the Board.

Several other recommendations of a minor character were also made and favorably acted on by the Board. In addition many collateral matters were considered but there were influences that prevented further action by this committee.

An administrative change that seemed to be of assistance was that the Welfare department have its own records and not be dependent on other departments of the town.

In some matters the Committee found the Selectmen willing to accept suggestions and after considerable persuasion instructions were issued for adoption of the ideas.

It was generally the opinion of the Committee that there were numerous cases on the welfare roll that either should not be there at all, or where too many from one family received aid, such as parents and grown children in the same family or where a father owned a house, received aid and also rent from a member of his family through the town. It also seemed that quite a few cases appeared for investigation before joint meetings of the Board and the Committee were disposed of by the Selectmen by granting the applicants what was requested.

It appeared to the Committee that there were either extreme generosity with, or a wilful disregard at times for the taxpayers' money. While granting that great caution should be taken that no injustice should occur, in the handling of cases, it was believed that the Director of Public Welfare should be the agent for determining the need for aid, and should aid be extended it must be the minimum and not the maximum.

It must be recognized that the funds available were limited and the demand very great; that many citizens, while in very straightened circumstances, were endeavoring to struggle through without asking aid, that self-seeking, dishonest persons preyed on the town, that the generosity of the Town fathers was common gossip; and affected the citizens of the town to the extent that it was more inviting to seek aid than work.

The Committee repeatedly urged the Board of Public Welfare to take cognizance of the above conditions and make more extensive investigations before authorizing aid, and by establishing stringent rules discourage the desire to remain a recipient of welfare.

It also must be recognized that the Selectmen are agents of the Town, and the money and aid they are dispensing is provided by the taxpayers.

Throughout the entire year the dissention in the Board of Selectmen has been well known to the public and that cooperation and harmony has been absent with consequent laxness in conduct of the Town's business.

The expenditures made through this department of the town will reach this year the tremendous sum of approximately $375,000. and by comparison with the expenditures made in other departments ranks second in volume; yet, the organization for dispensing this is not properly set up for handling the situation that confronted it.

It is believed:

1. That there are unworthy cases that should be weeded out.
 2. That in general recipients are receiving too much assistance.
 3. That the cost of medical aid is too high.
 4. That too much encouragement has been given to seek aid than discourage the practice.
- If a decided reversal downward in the existent trend is not obtained then the citizens will have a permanent dole system on their hands.

This committee recommends a thorough reorganization of the Welfare Department and the placing of responsibility of operation of the Department solely on the Director of Public Welfare where it rightly belongs; transmit instructions from the Board of Selectmen through the Clerk of the Board instead of through individual selectmen with all attendant confusion as is now done.

The Committee also believes that a Committee of six citizens again be appointed by the moderator to make investigations and receive reports from the Director of Public Welfare from time to time.

The investigations by the Police Department should continue and any findings of dishonesty or unworthy aid by the police should be reported to the Welfare Director who should have the power to remove such cases from the roll immediately.

At the present time the building inspector devotes a great proportion of his time to Welfare matters as a check-up man of work in lieu of charity. We believe that a person should be employed for this purpose by the welfare-department at a moderate salary, and that if the same man were to be called to work in this department then his salary in the inspectors department should be somewhat reduced.

The Town has been not only extremely generous, in its dispensation of public funds, but it also has been the recipient of large portions of public aid, both in cash and commodities.

The Board of Public Welfare has put in a great amount on Welfare matters, in fact spent too much time, because if the system were better organized under the Director of Welfare there would be less occasion for discussions on the subject.

Conditions in the handling of welfare in the Town have not been found generally satisfactory. Aid has been expended very commonly with only a moderate amount of investigation. The cost to the taxpayer is continually mounting and this year will be at least $10.00 of your total tax rate.

Let the next Board of Public Welfare indicate its loyalty and appreciation of the honor of serving the Town by further reorganizing the Welfare department at once and placing it upon a sound business basis. Should they do this they would quickly gain the confidence of the citizens and improve conditions throughout the community.

Mr. William D. Parker moved to take up Item 32. Not a vote.

Voted: That all Items under Article 1, Tentatively adopted be regularly and finally adopted.

Article 2. Under this article Clayton B. Merchant moved: To renew the motion, as offered by Mr. Everett E. Callahan, under Article 27 of the warrant for the annual meeting, held March 6, 1933. "That the Moderator appoint a Committee of 5 to study the subject matter of this article and report at a future town meeting." (Establishing a purchasing department in accordance with Sec. 103 of Chapter 44 of the General Laws.) So Voted.

At the annual town meeting held on March 6, 1933 under Article 34 of the warrant it was voted:

That a committee of five be appointed to investigate the naming of streets within the Town and to make recommendations to the next town meeting relative to eliminating the duplication or similarity of street names in several sections of the town.

The Moderator appointed as the Committee: Irving E. Johnson; Thomas J. Kelly; Russell H. Whiting; John Griffin; and J. Edward Mulligan;

The Committee met and organized with Irving E. Johnson as Chairman and Russell H. Whiting as Secretary, and would report as follows:

We find about 179 duplications or similarity of names throughout the town and would submit the following recommendations: or where two or more streets or ways have the same name and only one is to be retained preference be given to an accepted street over a private way, and where the choice lies between two private ways the change should be made where it would work the least hardship such as the lesser populated way or the one on which there are no established business firms, and the decision given to the more important way.

We believe that any present duplication in private ways should be eliminated before acceptance by the town and that any future duplication be prevented by the checking of the Street names shown on all plans presented to the Board of Survey for their approval.

We also recommend that continuous streets or ways carry only one name and in existing ways not in conformity with the above that the same corrected wherever feasible.

Without making any recommendation in the following instance. We would mention Hillside Avenue starting from Middle Street merging into Chard Street and later in to Putnam Street and ending at Broad Street as an illustration of a continuous way (between two main thoroughfares) having three names. There are of course various instances throughout the town.

We have herein a list of all duplications but have limited our report to these general recommendations.

Respectfully submitted

Irving E. Johnson, Chairman
John Griffin
J. Edward Mulligan
Thomas J. Kelly
Russell H. Whiting

More than seven members doubting the vote, a recount was ordered. The tellers reported 81 voting in the affirmative and 62 in the negative the report was ordered read.

Mr. Joseph Crehan, Chairman of Welfare Board
Weymouth, Mass.

Dear Sir:

In compliance with the vote at the special Town Meeting held in June at which meeting the investigating of all recipients of Welfare was to be carried on under the direct supervision of the Police Department. The following report was submitted:

The number of cases investigated was 200 of which 50 was reported in person by me.

The plan employed in this investigation entailed considerable detail work on the part of the Department, and while it is a duty placed on the Police Department by the Town Meeting it is evident that changes should be made by the Board of Public Welfare in the administering of charity.

In my many conferences with the Board of Public Welfare the Police Department because of experience gained while making these investigations offered certain suggestions, the important ones being—

First—In order to get a more up to date classification that, all welfare cases be dropped and resumed under a new card index plan which would accomplish:

(a) Proper classification of the applicant.

(b) An adequate plan of follow up

Second—This suggestion had to do with changing from the order slip now in use to the cash payment plan, this change would eliminate abuses now existing.

Without making criticism of any Board the Board of Public Welfare or other Town officials connected with administering of Welfare I suggest the re-organization of the entire Welfare Department, in which the administration and the giving of welfare be under the direct supervision of one person, although the present law is such a plan would be unenforcible nevertheless it is our thought that if the present or future Boards of Public Welfare would nominate and entrust one of its members to be such person this problem would be less difficult to handle.

Edward F. Butler,
Chief of Police

REPORT OF THE ELECTRIC LIGHTING COMMITTEE

Weymouth, December 31, 1934

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

This committee, with the approval of the Town Counsel, has entered into a contract to April 1, 1935 with the Weymouth Light & Power Co. to continue the lighting of about eighty-five miles of streets.

We have maintained the schedule of last year, improving it in several locations by raising the candle power of existing lights. We have added forty-six new 60 C. P. lights. The majority of these were placed on the newly accepted streets. The remainder were added to the streets accepted during 1933, for which there was no money available at the time.

Following are the present numbers and prices of the various lights.

1018—60	C. P. @ $18.50 per year—	$18,833.00
533—80	C. P. @ 21.60 per year—	11,512.80
13—100	C. P. @ 24.00 per year—	312.00
26—250	C. P. @ 42.00 per year—	1,092.00
41—600	C. P. @ 70.00 per year—	2,870.00
21—1000	C. P. @ 85.00 per year—	1,785.00
<hr/> 1652		<hr/> $36,404.80

This latter amount will be necessary to maintain this schedule during 1935.

Twenty-five new 60 C. P. lights for six months service at a cost of $231.25 will be needed. These will be used mostly on the streets proposed for acceptance.

The illumination of the new Fore River Bridge and approach there-to will probably not be required until 1936.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH KELLEY, Chairman
ALFRED S. TIRRELL
WILLIAM B. NASH, JR.
L. HENRY GODIN
J. H. LIBBEY, Clerk

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen of the Town of Weymouth:
Gentlemen:

I herewith submit my annual report for the year 1934 with the sealing fees amounting to $340.94. This is an increase due to the increased number of oil vehicle truck tanks and measuring meters on oil trucks.

There were three convictions made during the year as follows, one for peddling without a license, one for using an unsealed and false measure and one for giving short measure. All were found guilty and paid fines of which amounted to forty-five dollars.

My general work for the year is as follows:

Tested and Sealed 3291 weighing and measuring devices
Not Sealed 149 weighing and measuring devices
Condemned 26 weighing and measuring devices
Tested and Sealed 239 Gasoline Pumps
Reweighings 482 Food packages

REPORT OF
HARBORMASTER OF TOWN OF WEYMOUTH

December 31, 1934

Hon. Board of Selectmen,
Town Hall—East Weymouth, Mass.,
Gentlemen:

I herewith submit my seventh annual report as Harbormaster of the Town of Weymouth and conforming with your request, I am making the same as brief as possible.

The past year has been busier than the previous one owing to the fact that there was a big increase in our summer residents, bathers and yachtsmen which resulted in a larger number of requests for assistance and complaints of lost boats and minor law violations.

The cost of the maintenance of my department for the past year was $383 of which the Town refunded me the sum of $250. The balance I have paid myself.

Thanking your board for the hearty cooperation, that they have rendered my department, I remain,

Respectfully submitted,

A. S. Veader,
Harbormaster, Weymouth

REPORT OF
WEYMOUTH TOWN INFIRMARY

To the Honorable Board of Public Welfare,
Town of Weymouth, Mass.

Gentlemen:

Herewith submit report of the Weymouth Town Infirmary, Essex Street, for year 1934:

On December 31, 1934 residents comprised two women and 14 men, although 12 more have been transients during the year, as shown by the following table:

Number of residents Jan. 1, 1934	16
Number admitted during year	12
Number discharged during year	12
Number of residents Dec. 31, 1934	16

As in the past, the men that are able to work have been co-operative in the general work about the Home, such as caring for the poultry, the lawns, and in making a very successful garden which furnished fresh vegetables during the summer, many being canned in addition to fruit raised, for the winter months.

No major repairs or additions have been necessary. Things have progressed about as usual. The men use the "Smoke House" as a Club room, with reading matter and the radio for mental diversion. At Christmas extra cheer was furnished by a tree with practical gifts for each resident, from your Honorable Board and friends, to all of whom thanks is here extended.

In closing my eighth report, Mrs. Berry joins me in thanks for the co-operation we have received for the good of the Infirmary.

Respectfully submitted,
CLIFFORD A. BERRY, Supt.

REPORT OF
THE BUILDING INSPECTOR FOR 1934

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen
Gentlemen:

I herewith submit my report for 1934 as follows:

Building Permits issued	94
Alteration Permits issued	187
<hr/>
Total Permits	281
Estimated value of Buildings	$122,410.
Estimated value of Alterations	$ 49,104.
<hr/>
Total valuation	$171,514.
Receipts	$400.

A very slight improvement over last year. I have made 16 Elevator Inspections.

The committee appointed by the Town Moderator to revise the Building Laws is working on the revision and I believe they will have a Building law that will cover the entire building field more completely.

There is a movement on foot in this town to see what can be done on the Federal Housing Program. Mr. Alfred Sheehy spoke to me about a committee to work along those lines, and I have faith that a committee like that might do a fine thing to stimulate the building industry in Weymouth and also put a lot of men to work for, after all, the thing most needed everywhere is, to quote his Excellency the Governor, "A Program of work and wages."

We have during the year removed a number of old buildings which had become a fire menace and were objectionable to the sections of the Town. I trust that we may be able to remove more in the near future.

Respectfully submitted,

ANDREW T. MOORE, Inspector.

REPORT OF WEYMOUTH VISITING NURSE ASSOCIATION

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen

Gentlemen:

The Weymouth Visiting Nurse Association has completed the twentieth year of work in this community and the secretary respectfully submits the following report:

There have been ten regular meetings of the officers and Directors in the Town Hall with an average attendance of thirteen.

The balance on hand in the treasury shows the association with a fair financial standing at this time.

The baby clinic has been very efficient and busy. There have been 42 clinics with an average of 23 babies attending.

The nurses, Mrs. Pratt and Miss Wilbur, have had a busy year as usual. They made 5,659 calls, 3055 of which were free.

Both the annual membership drive held in March and the tag day in October were well supported by the residents of the town upon whom the success of this organization depends.

Respectfully submitted,

Helen Crosby Hutchison

REPORT OF
 SUPT. OF THE ALEWIVE FISHERIES
 December 31, 1934

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen
 of the Town of Weymouth:

I herewith submit my annual report as superintendent of the Alewife Fisheries for the year ending December 31, 1934.

The run was very good this year and helpful to most of the needy of our town.

On April 23rd, your Board voted to give free fish to all citizens of Weymouth which proved helpful to many of our residents.

The State department of Fisheries took twenty-five hundred (2500) alewives to stock Bound Brook in Cohasset and Ware River in Hingham.

Whitmans Pond was stocked with one hundred thirty-five thousand and six hundred (135,600) fish for spawning. Fifteen thousand nine hundred and twenty-four (15,924) were given to Weymouth residents and thirteen thousand five hundred (13,500) were sold at the fishery, making a total of one hundred sixty-seven thousand five hundred twenty-four (167,524) fish for the total run.

In closing my report, I wish to thank the members of your Board, the Weymouth Light and Power Company, the Weymouth Wool Scouring Company, Mr. Kelly, Superintendent of Streets and my employees for the help and cooperation given me during the year.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANCIS H. MAGUIRE, JR.

Supt. of the Alewife Fisheries

REPORT OF TOWN ENGINEER

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen of the Town of Weymouth,
Gentlemen:

I submit herewith my twenty-eighth annual report on surveying and engineering work for the town.

The town survey work so called is the annual revision of the 65 assessors sheets covering the town and is substantially the same each year and entails practically the same amount of work.

This work has been itemized in many previous reports; in general it is obtaining all data from the Registry of Deeds for Norfolk County relative to any change of ownership in land or any rights in land acquired through sale or transfer, by the foreclosure of a mortgage, or the purchase of a tax title; obtaining data from the Registry of Probate relative to real property acquired by inheritance or devise; obtaining copies from the Registry of Deeds or from the Land Court of all plans of land in Weymouth therein recorded; procuring copies of all plans made and not recorded, whenever possible; the making of various surveys when necessary; the locating of all new buildings, and the measurement of all major changes in existing buildings; the object being a correct representation of each parcel of land on the various maps, showing the ownership, the area, and the buildings located thereon.

This is done each year and a complete set of prints furnished the Assessors.

During the past year however under an act of the legislature effective December 31, 1934 two revisions were required; one correct as of April 1, 1934 and the other correct as of Jan. 1, 1935, and in the future January first of each year will be the date of assessment.

On the first revision covering the year ending April 1, 1934, transfers, takings, releases, grants or easements, including tax deeds, receipts and certificates totaled 1075 or about 2% more than the year previous; probates copied were 123 or an increase of nearly 80% over the previous year.

The new buildings, including 19 dwellings as compared with 11 the previous year, numbered 134 as against 140 the year before, and the additions to buildings dropped from 284 to 221 during the year ending April 1, 1934.

There were 74 buildings removed from the maps during that period or 3 less than the year before. The only change in municipal buildings was the addition of the High School Cafeteria.

For nine months of the second revision, the deeds, takings, releases, grants or easements, tax deeds, etc. already copied number 604 and the probates 127; this number however covers only the period from April 2nd to Sept. 20th, approximately 6 months, as the recorded deeds have, at this writing, not been entered in the record books at the Registry subsequent to the latter date.

These figures would indicate a decided increase over a twelve month period.

The buildings for the entire nine months ending Jan. 1, 1935 (with the possibility of a few additions) are as follows:— 14 dwellings, 100 other buildings, 134 additions, and 73 removed.

This shows an increase in new buildings, a loss in additions or changes, and more removals.

In this latter period municipal changes include the addition of a grandstand at Legion Field, and the transfer of a portable building from the Nevin School to the Center School.

A notable improvement to the Assessors' sheets has been the addition of the street numbers so that any one can get the correct number for any building in town by application to their office.

As has often been stated in my reports all deeds should be recorded in order that the land conveyed may be assessed to the true owner, as the owner of record is the one to whom the assessment is made.

A change in name occurring through marriage or otherwise if brought to my attention will be corrected on the town maps.

During the past year new tracings of nine of the town survey sheets were made to replace those worn from constant erasures over many years.

The above is in brief the outline of the two revisions in 1934.

A small appropriation was made for the purchase and setting of stone bounds and this has been carefully expended but has not been sufficient even with the use of the E. R. A. labor, to properly bound the streets lately accepted.

The total budget for the engineering department in 1934 was $5,475. and I would recommend an appropriation of $4200. for 1935.

Among municipal surveying and engineering work common to all towns, ordered by your Board or by other departments in the town during the year 1934 I would list the following general work:—the giving of street lines when ordered by your Board upon request from abutting owners; sketches showing suggested location or relocation of streets; staking and grades for permanent sidewalks; staking and grades for street curbs, and for curbing around various greens at street junctions which are under the Park department; taking profiles, establishing grades, and staking and giving grades for street drains, other drains, and for drainage ditches; plans of easements for drainage; plans of takings for various purposes; survey and plan for layout of Academy Avenue extension; staking boundary line (in part) of Legion Field; making plans or sketches, for different departments of the town, of various projects to present for approval to the Federal Emergency Relief Administration; staking and grades for all streets or relocations accepted by the town at the last annual town meeting, and setting such stone bounds as the appropriation allowed; staking building for filter plant at Great Pond; taking prints of the plans made for the town of the different cemeteries; topographical survey and plan of a portion of Legion Field with design for street curb, tree lawn, walk and wall; taking levels, staking and giving grades for grading over a portion of Legion Field; staking and giving grades for drain and catch basins on Great Hill drive from near the bath house to the top of the hill; making a complete list of the town streets and private ways throughout the town for use of the Planning Board in a proposed elimination of the duplication of names; locating all permanent sidewalks in Weymouth, and the preparation of a town map showing same for use by the Planning Board in making their recommendations for a policy of building permanent sidewalks covering a period of years; the construction of a map from which a small map of the town 30 inches by 12 inches was made, copies of which are I believe on sale by the Selectmen; and various other minor work.

The above list includes work done for your Board and for practically every department of the town.

There are I understand many projects for the coming year under consideration, some of which have been approved and work already begun.

As in previous years assistance has been received and courtesy shown both to me and to my assistants by your Board, by other town officials and by many citizens, to all of whom I wish to extend my sincere thanks.

Respectfully submitted,

RUSSELL H. WHITING,
Civil Engineer

REPORT OF THE PARK COMMISSIONERS

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

Gentlemen:

BEALS PARK

Once again it is the pleasure of the Park Commissioners to acquaint you with our accomplishments of this past year. In Beals Park we have taken the usual care to keep the shubbery trimmed, the grass mowed and the tennis court in the "best of condition."

Each year we try to improve at least one "sore spot" and this time we chose the pond. For some years this has been a bone of contention to the people who owned property about the park. Some careless townspeople have regarded this part of the park as a public dump and each year we have been obliged to clear away ashes and general refuse. As we were able, through federal funds, to secure E. R. A. workmen we have, with little expense to the town, been able to remove this nuisance, regrade and terrace the banks. We hope by spring to have completed this project and thus to have transformed an ugly, unsightly spot into one of beauty. We are sorry that our regrading has deprived the children of a skating rink for this winter, but we plan that hereafter the rink will be at least double the size of the one used in former years.

GREAT HILL PARK

Each year the beach with its bath-house and competent and courteous attendant is growing in popularity, to such an extent now that our parking space is decidedly inadequate for the comfort of the bathers. Then too, we found that the bath-house is entirely too small. We have been able to secure some town funds and E. R. A. workmen again so we hope to have an additional bath-house. Just now we are building retaining walls to keep automobiles off the beach and retaining walls which will be used as curbs for the road up the hill.

WESTON PARK

Weston Park continues to be a popular recreational center for both old and young. With its diversified features a large number of people are able to use and enjoy this beautiful natural park.

Baseball is ever popular both daily and twilight. It is a pretty sight to see the hills covered with spectators enjoying a game played by the local boys. On a Sunday afternoon many families come together. When the children and adults come together one feels that the park is truly being utilized.

Under the shade of the lovely old elms the children's playground is located on the Broad Street side. Much has been done to clear this end of the park, walks and grass plots have been laid out. A rock garden has been prepared for early spring planting.

Both shuffle boards are in constant use especially by the older men of the community who thoroughly enjoy the game.

A Weymouth seam face granite convenient station has been erected near the children's playground.

On the Washington street side, a beautiful annual garden thrived. Due to Mr. Jerome Healy's efforts a mass of color was portrayed.

Partial cleaning on the Front Street side and the establishment of a small nursery for future planting has been started.

The stone wall on the Franklin Street side has been completed and is a great addition as well as a protection.

WEBB PARK

Trees have been trimmed and brush and undergrowth cleared.

A shuffle board has been added to the equipment and also new equipment supplemented for the old.

Excavation has been made and a tennis court laid out.

The flag pole has been painted and a large flag purchased.

A rock garden has been laid out in this park.

LAKE STREET

Early in the season the beach was cleaned. The equipment has been painted and a wall built to protect the shelter house.

Bathing is most popular and a hot summers day finds a large crowd.

During the summer a group of band concerts were held in the various parts of the town. The music was furnished by the E. R. A. bands. This was a novel feature and greatly appreciated.

Three Symphony Concerts with the Greater Boston Chorus appearing at two of them were held at the Ralph Talbot Amphitheatre. These were well attended. The small expense incurred in bringing these musicians here was taken from the Quincy Tufts Educational Fund.

We are indebted and greatly pleased with the co-operation received from the E. R. A. administer and the other departments in the town, who have helped us to accomplish what we have earnestly endeavored to achieve.

LOVELL'S CORNER PLAYGROUND

This year has been a busy one for Lovells Corner Playground. More than ever have the young people enjoyed the facilities offered them.

The baseball field has been greatly improved and we have noticed an increased attendance as every opportunity to use it was made use of.

Tennis courts, swings, and children's equipment surely did their part in entertaining the kiddies.

Two shuffle boards have been installed this year and adults as well as the younger set have shown how popular this type of amusement has grown to be.

We propose to clean out the underbrush and transplant some of the pines this winter and hope to make the grove one to be enjoyed. Other improvements are being planned for this playground.

Mr. Edwards has acted as caretaker and is much interested in the undertaking. We owe much to him for his assistance.

POND PLAIN PLAYGROUND

This location has been greatly improved this year with the assistance of the E. R. A.

Much grading has been done. The play equipment has been moved to a newly filled location and has been greatly enjoyed.

The grove connected with the grounds is now being cleaned up, trees pruned and dead material removed. This will make a real shelter during the hot days of the summer for the grownups as well as for the little ones.

Mr. Parker Thomas has very kindly allowed us to use his land adjoining the playground for a baseball field and it has been a busy one.

Two shuffle boards have been installed also a horseshoe court for adults and one for juniors. All this has proved to be very popular.

LEARY AND BAUER MEADOW

We have cleaned the skating pool and flooded it. We shall try to enlarge the skating area this year.

GREENS

This year the greens located at various street intersections have been cared for by our commissioners.

We have endeavored to keep them in good shape, cutting the grass and in some places planting flowers and shrubs. We hope to do much more of this work this year.

With the help of F.E.R.A. we have trimmed and curbed about 3000 running feet of the green, also graded and seeded it. On Main street at junction of Front Street we have been able to get the State Highway Commissioner to co-operate with us by widening the travelled way from curb to curb. The appearance has been greatly improved at this location. The Weymouth Garden Club has helped to beautify some of these greens, and we would ask our readers to co-operate with us in furthering this work and make our town much more attractive.

This year the Park Commission hired George Monroe as a life saver and swimming instructor at the North Weymouth Bath-house. Mr. Monroe is a certified Red Cross Examiner, and is a graduate of the Aquatic School given by the American Red Cross at Brimfield, Massachusetts.

The work was popularly received and efficiently done. Approximately eight hundred children were given instruction in swimming and in life saving. The lives of ten children were saved. There were no losses from drowning. Classes of instruction were given on week days. The large crowds on Saturday and Sunday prevented the lifeguard's doing anything but watching to prevent or care for all the emergencies which might arise.

This instruction was given with the thought of teaching the children to guard their own safety and to care for the security of others. Children and adults were shown by the instructor the correct form for all the basic strokes as well as the correct form for the technique of life saving. In life saving, these pupils were shown the correct way in which to approach, contact, and carry the victim to safety. Artificial respiration was especially emphasized so that the pupils would know exactly how and when to apply this knowledge to save anyone from death by drowning, electrical shock, or by asphixiation. Of course, practice under the observance of the instructor was available during the hour scheduled each day for this purpose.

This training will go far in making this beach a safer place to swim because it teaches the common sense methods of prevention and aversion of all the possible dangers of swimming besides teaching the actual rescue work.

PLAYGROUNDS 1934

PERSONNEL, EQUIPMENT

The Park Department maintained the following playgrounds for a six week period beginning July 9, 1934:

Playground	Instructor
Pond Plain Playground	Mrs. Inez Kohler
Stetson Field	Hazel Smith (afternoons)
Webb Park	Hazel Smith (mornings)
Weston Park	Edwin B. Thomas
Bicknell Park	Margaret Ionta
Lake Street Playground	Alfred Denly (3 weeks) Peter Valicenti (3 weeks)
Lovell's Corner Playground	Dorothy Peterson

Playgrounds were open weekdays from 9:00—11:30 A. M. and from 1:30—4:00 P. M.

Closer co-ordination of the playgrounds was one of the commissioners' aims for the 1934 season. Two "co-ordinators," Philip A. Conathan and John T. Ghiorse, were named in order to distribute equipment, to facilitate communication between the commissioners and the individual supervisors, to manage sports contests between the various playgrounds and transport contestants from one playground to another, to publish the playground activities, and to aid the individual instructors in any manner possible toward a more unified playground system.

All the equipment of the various parks was made available to the youngsters. In addition, there were the standard playground allotments of supplies and equipment necessary for Paddle Tennis, Baseball, Volleyball, Basketball, Ringtoss, Tennis, and Horseshoes.

Materials for handwork was provided, in many cases, by the instructors themselves.

ATTENDANCE

The weather during the playground season was ideal. Not a single rainy day marred the activities during the six weeks. An assortment of cool and hot days was to be found in every week so that every type of recreation was seasonable.

A Daily Total Attendance of five hundred and fifty children was attracted to the parks. They were distributed as follows:

AVERAGE DAILY ATTENDANCE

Park	Number	Park	Number
Pond Plain	65	Lake Street	100
Stetson Field	50	Lovell's Corner	75
Webb Park	50	Bicknell	75
Weston Park	135
			<hr/>
			Total 550

COMPETITIONS

Some seventy-five interplayground contests were handled by the co-ordinators, during the four weeks of competition. These contests entailed the transporting of about six hundred children to and from the games. Realizing that it is from competition with outside teams that children get most fun in sports, we can see the commissioners' wisdom in inaugurating co-ordinators to make it possible for a playground team to engage in battle with another equal team at frequent intervals.

Baseball held sway over all other games with about thirty-five games played between playground teams (seniors, juniors, midgets, junior midgets, and girls). Volleyball for girls came next with about twenty games. A dozen Horseshoe matches, five Track Meets, a half-dozen Tennis matches, and a Paddle Tennis tournament constituted the rest of the inter-playground competition.

In addition there were countless competitions and tournaments held on the playgrounds under the supervision of the instructors themselves.

The following Champions were proclaimed:

Sport	Champion	Sport	Champion
Baseball		Track
senior (15 yrs.)	Bicknell	senior—	Lovell's Cor.
junior (12-15)	Webb	junior—	Weston
midget (9-12 yrs.)	Weston	Horseshoes—	Lake Street
junior midget		Paddle Tennis—	Webb
(below 9)	Pond Plain	Tennis—	Lovell's Cor.
girls (all ages)	Pond Plain
Volleyball (Girls)	Bicknell

Honorable mention was given in publicity to the individual champions, who were selected on the basis of ability and sportsmanship.

There were several contests with teams from Braintree and Rockland in Baseball and Volleyball.

GENERAL ACTIVITIES

In addition to overseeing sports competitions and keeping an eye on children at play on the apparatus, the supervisors found time to teach all types of handicraft and also held special events weekly; such as, horrible parades, doll carriage parades, hikes, and the like.

At the Pond Plain playground, Mrs. Kohler, aided by several mothers, had her playground group put on a play, "The Land of Story." This play was put on with much success on several occasions. Miss Hazel Smith also conducted pageants both at Stetson Field and Webb Park with much success.

The Annual Outings were held at Wessagusset Beach during the final week. The children were taken to North Weymouth by bus and thoroughly enjoyed a day of picnicking and water sports.

I found the old cemeteries which are not now in use, in very poor condition, and they could not be put in first class condition with the amount I could allow for them. I recommend that in the near future an extra amount be appropriated to condition these cemeteries thoroughly and then the expense of their care will be small.

I wish to thank the superintendents of the various cemeteries for their cooperation, also Mr. Kelly, Supt. of Streets, for several loads of loam.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles H. Burkett
Custodian of Veterans' Graves

REPORT OF THE TOWN COUNSEL

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

I submit my report as Town Counsel for the year ending December 31, 1934. In accordance with your suggestion that the Town Reports be condensed as much as possible for reasons of economy, I am not setting forth in detail the list of cases actually pending before the various Courts today, in which the Town is a party.

I might say that cases numbered 23281, 25426, 25804 and 27172 as set forth in my last report have all been terminated in the Superior Court. None of these cases involved any considerable sum of money. Several other cases of a minor nature have been tried and likewise concluded. The remaining cases stated in the report for the year ending December 31, 1933 as being inactive are still inactive and certain of them are ripe for dismissal.

There have been certain other cases entered in which the Town is named as defendant and which may be tried during the current year.

These cases fall into two groups and may generally be described as being for damages for alleged injuries growing out of accidents on the highways of the Town and land damage cases for takings made by the Town. In addition to this type of case we have a constantly increasing number of small claims, in the great bulk of which I have been able to arrange amicable adjustments without the necessity of any litigation. It is a source of concern to me that the number of cases growing out of alleged defects on the public ways of the Town are increasing considerably. This is also the experience of the legal departments of several nearby municipalities. In my opinion this does not reflect the true condition of the highways but is rather strikingly typical of the times. Care must be used by our citizens in order to save themselves and the Town expense.

I wish to thank the Townspeople and the various Boards and Departments of the Town for their courtesy and the assistance given me during the period that this report covers.

Respectfully submitted,

Kenneth L. Nash
Town Counsel

REPORT OF THE PLANNING BOARD

A great deal of time has been and is now being put in by the members of this board.

Academy Avenue has been completed as proposed by us last year, and has proved to be of great convenience to the general traffic and has opened up much territory for location of homes.

We are in favor of straightening Pleasant St. from the junction of Water St. to the Police Station and Riley avenue; also Pleasant St. at the foot of Pine St.

Straighten North St. near Grandells.

Resurface Pond St. from South Weymouth R. R. tracks to Fountain Square.

Resurface and drain Front St. from Garfield Square to Washington St. Drainage project has been started on this item.

Resurface Broad St. from Washington St. to Front St.

Resurface Columbian Square also Pleasant St. from Columbian Square to Independence Square.

Remove all tracks, grade and resurface North and Sea Streets.

Reconstruct Middle St. beginning at Washington St. thence toward Broad St. as far as appropriation we may obtain, will allow.

The board has obtained from the towns engineer, who is a member of the board, a map of the town indicating all sidewalks in place up to the present time.

We now propose the installation of sidewalks and curb beginning where the present walks end, extending as far as appropriation will permit. This method will be followed starting at each of the prominent squares constructing a certain amount every year in each section.

We propose to relocate the corner of Pearl and Evans Streets:

Widening of Broad St. will be brought up at 1935 annual town meeting.

We are asking for traffic lights as follows: Independence Square; Columbian Square; Lincoln Square; Washington Square.

Many other projects too numerous to mention here are being planned by this body.

Mr. Ralph Haskins, who has served as clerk ever since reorganization, was forced, on account of business pressure, to resign. This is to be regretted as he was much interested in the work. Mr. A. I. Negus was elected to serve balance of year. (Mr. Everett J. McIntosh was elected to fill this vacancy.) Mr. J. B. Reed was obliged to withdraw on account of business connections.

The board will be glad to receive suggestions or petitions regarding improvements in our town.

Respectfully submitted,

Frank A. Pray, Chairman
Arthur I. Negus, Clerk

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE OBSERVANCE OF MEMORIAL DAY

To the Citizens of Weymouth:

The committee appointed by the moderator for the observance of Memorial Day organized on April 27, 1934.

A plan of observance was presented by Waldo Turner, adjutant of Reynolds Post, No. 58, G.A.R., which the committee adopted unanimously. The order of exercises: assembly at 8 A.M. Memorial Day at Hurley Square, N. Weymouth; parade to Old North Cemetery for memorial exercises and decoration of graves of veterans of all wars; thence proceeding for similar exercises and decoration to the other cemeteries in the following order, to Village, to St. Francis, to Highland, to Lakeview, to Elmwood, to Mt. Hope and to Fairmount. On completion of the exercises at Fairmount Cemetery town officials with the town colors, all veteran organizations with full complement of colors, auxiliaries, hereditary organizations, patriotic societies, and boy and girl scouts, assembled at Commercial Square for parade to Civic Centre to attend patriotic exercises under the direction of Reynolds Post, No. 58, G.A.R. The parade proceeded along Broad St. to Central Square, thence over Middle St., to the Civic Centre. Waldo Turner, Asst. Adjutant. General, Dept. of Mass., Past Dept. Commander of Mass., Past Commander and Adjutant of Reynolds Post, G.A.R., served as Chief Marshal. Music for the day was furnished by Weymouth Post No. 79, A. L. Band, and Weymouth Post, No. 79, A. L. Drum Corps. A new flag was placed on each veterans grave, those of the Revolutionary War and the War of 1812 being decorated with the 13 star flag of that period. This year's committee asked for and received sufficient additional money to purchase enough flags to again decorate every grave just previous to Armistice Day, the detail in the larger cemeteries being carried out by members of the American Legion, and in the smaller ones by the Veterans of Foreign Wars in whose care they have been placed by vote of the town. Memorial monuments thruout the town were suitably decorated. Purchases of decorations were made thru the Weymouth Florists Association. Arrangements for transportation were made thru competitive bidding. Dinner was served in the High School Cafeteria for all organizations participating in the exercises, under the direction of the Women's Relief Corps, assisted by the auxiliaries of the various organizations.

The committee expresses its appreciation to the Police Dept. for the efficient and capable handling of a difficult traffic situation, to the School Dept. for the use of the Cafeteria, and to the citizens of the town for the respect, order and decorum observed thruout the day.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TRAFFIC CONTROL AT COLUMBIAN SQUARE, SOUTH WEYMOUTH

To the Town of Weymouth

The committee of five, appointed by Moderator George L. Barnes, to investigate and report on the subject matter of Article 19, of the Warrant for the Annual Town meeting, of March 1934, report as follows:

The instruction and authority of this committee is outlined in the above mentioned Article and the subsequent vote of the Town Meeting and for clarity they are recorded here.

Article 19 - Annual Town Meeting, March, 1934: To see if the Town will vote to install a traffic light system at Columbian Square and to see what sum of money the town will vote to raise and appropriate for same, or take any other action in reference thereto. Voted that the subject matter of the article be referred to a committee of five from South Weymouth for investigation and report.

The committee met for the first time on Wednesday, April 11th, at the Fogg Library and organized with Josiah B. Reed as Chairman and F. A. Gunn as Secretary.

The full committee met again on April 16th and the final meeting was on June 25th. At both of these meetings Chief of Police Edward F. Butler attended on invitation. At the meeting on April 16th the committee requested Chief Butler to have a survey of the square made by the engineers of the Public Works Department of the State of Massachusetts in such a way that there would be no cost to the town. This was accordingly done and the report is attached herewith.

At the final meeting on June 25th after discussion it was moved that the report be accepted, except for the installation of lights, and same was voted four to one with Mr. Reed dissenting. It was the expressed opinion of the four of the committee that the installation of lights should be avoided if it was possible to get along without them and that the most of the difficulty could be overcome by police action in the way of making traffic lanes, parking regulations and closer supervision of drivers who persist in travelling through the square too fast.

Francis A. Gunn
Matthew O. Dowd
Prince H. Tirrell
Irving E. Johnson

It is the opinion of the signer of the minority report that there are only two ways to control the action of the drivers of Automobiles; one is a traffic officer and the other is traffic lights. The painting of lanes on the highway will not, in my opinion, bring about any improvement in the present conditions, therefore the minority report. I recommend the adoption of the engineers report in full.

Josiah B. Reed

Total number of cars thru the intersection - 4459. 1355 travel north on Pleasant Street, 314 of these turn left into Columbian, and 52 turn left into Torrey Street, 412 turn right into Union Street. 820 cars travel south on Pleasant Street, 178 turn left into Union, 83 turn right into Columbian and 5 turn right into Torrey.

1114 cars travel east on Columbian Street, 122 of which turn left into Pleasant and 3 turn left into Torrey. 275 turn right into Pleasant.

1114 cars travel west on Union Street, 270 of which turn left into Pleasant, 146 turn right into Pleasant. 693 go straight into Columbian and 5 into Torrey.

56 cars travel east on Torrey, 6 turn left into Pleasant, 18 go straight into Union and 5 turn right into Columbian.

I would suggest a signal installation as shown on the enclosed blue print, reducing the size of the island from its present size (shown in dotted lines) to that shown in full line. Make Columbian Street traffic keep to right of island on entering and leaving, erect the proper signs to warn motorists of this regulation.

Paint the necessary center and Stop lines; also paint pedestrian cross walks.

Rotary traffic would not take care of the situation here because the storekeepers would immediately enter complaints if parking was prohibited in the circle, and this is the only way a rotary island of any description would handle traffic.

On the right page of the blue print the number and nature of accidents here within the past three years is shown, together with the number of personal injuries. In studying this collision diagram it can be readily be seen that signals will eliminate this type of accident. Of course, it will be advisable to have a pedestrian period. Would suggest a push button similar to that now in use at Sea Street.

REPORT OF THE MOTH SUPERINTENDENT

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen of Weymouth.

Please listen to Swan Song and therein find my twenty-fifth annual report as Moth Superintendent. We had last year an appropriation of $6,326.00. of which we returned to the treasury $503.98. This was made possible by the fact that we had so few elm leaf beetles that we did not spray all of our elms. Owing to climatic conditions in both winter and summer our fruit trees were in such bad condition that many owners did not have them sprayed as usual.

On the advice of the State Board we have done quite a lot of scouting for Gypsy Moths and while we had no defoliation here for some years we found Gypsy Moths scattered all over Town and that means more later on .The slogan is: When you get them down keep them down.

Sincerely yours for the cause,

Charles L. Merritt
Whilom Moth Superintendent

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF FIRE ALARMS

To Chief J. Ralph Bacon, Weymouth Fire Department.

I respectfully submit the annual report of the fire alarm system of the Weymouth Fire Department.

During the year alarms have been transmitted over the system:

Alarms for fires	95	Lost Child Calls	2
Multiple second alarms	4	Boy Scout Calls	2
False alarms	21	No school signals	3
Out of Town Calls	1	7 Blows	28

The outside wire is in very good condition, very little trouble being encountered from this source. The constant replacement of new poles has added much to the upkeep of the system. It is also necessary to renew approximately 200 crossarms each year to keep the system in efficient operation.

We have a number of obsolete alarm boxes spread over the circuit which are over 40 years old. I am hoping to get three new boxes this year to take the place of boxes I consider dangerous to the system. In concluding, I wish to extend my sincere thanks to all for the services and co-operation rendered at all times.

Respectfully,

C. F. Coolidge,
Supt. of Fire Alarms

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF STREETS

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

The poor condition of streets after the severe winter of 1933 and 1934, not wholly unexpected, made repair work more extensive than in previous years. Sections were resurfaced and considerable repairs were done on many streets.

It had been anticipated that some of the streets accepted at the annual meeting would be worked by CWA, ERA and welfare labor, but it was found imperative, in order to complete all work designated by the town, to allocate the regular street department labor to several of the jobs.

ERA workers were used on Idlewell Boulevard, Academy Avenue, Greenvale Avenue, Lakeshore Park, Center Haven, Robinswood Road, Mt. Ida Road, Mt. Vernon Road East, Hunt Avenue and on North and Norton Streets.

Regular street employees completed Westminster Road, Taft Road, Lakewood Avenue, Canacum Road, Brook Terrace, Pierce Road, Manomet Road and Massassoit Road. Welfare workers were also used on these streets.

Sidewalks were constructed by department labor on the following streets:- Columbian Street, Tower Avenue, Hilldale Road, Randolph Street, Washington Street, Commercial Street, Madison Street and on Union Street, Washington Street, and Columbian Street by ERA workers. Curbing was constructed on North Street.

Too much stress cannot be placed on the importance of oiling of streets. The budget figure does not warrant the oiling of all streets but each year additional mileage is reason for an increased allowance for this work.

Snow removal costs exceeded the budget figure by a large amount and as last year approval for an overdraft, but in accordance with Chapter 44 Section 31 of the general laws, was given by the Board of Selectmen.

The summary of the Street Department budget will be found in the Town Accountant's Report.

The cooperation of your board as well as other departments of the Town, was greatly appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

T. J. Kelly
Supt. of Streets

REPORT OF THE TREE WARDEN

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen of Weymouth

Please listen to my Swan Song and find therein my twenty-fifth annual report as Tree Warden. We have set out 80 Norway Maple trees, most of them around the Boulevard at Idlewell, look them over. We have taken down ten dead trees and had quite a job in clearing after the big storm at the Heights. We have a very serious menace facing us in the Dutch Elm disease. Though it has not got here yet it is in Connecticut and is headed this way. I have sent samples of leaves and twigs as requested to the Laboratories but have been assured that there was no sign of Dutch.

To the Citizens of Weymouth

In this my last report, I wish to express my heartfelt thanks for your loyal cooperation and liberal votes. I can't call names but each one take their part.

Sincerely yours,

Charles L. Merritt
Tree Warden

REPORT OF CHIEF OF FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The Honorable Board of Selectmen,

I respectfully submit the annual report of the activities of my department during the past year of 1934.

Although there has been no serious conflagration, much success has been due to the prompt notification, and the ability to extinguish these fires while in their incipient stage.

The department has been called upon to respond to 389 alarms for fires during this period.

Many additional calls were answered to render aid to persons during sickness or accidents, and assistance was rendered in a very efficient manner.

The Two Platoon system which the citizens so generously voted to the members of the Fire Department must be arranged for in the immediate future. I sincerely recommend the appointment of 8 additional men for this purpose. These men are necessary to keep the amount of protection up to standard, and to operate the apparatus in an efficient manner.

The buildings of the Fire Department are badly in need of repair, such as painting and carpentering. I would recommend that provisions be made for this expenditure.

All apparatus and equipment has been tested and found to be operating properly.

In closing I wish to thank all who have assisted in making the work of my department a pleasure during the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

J. Ralph Bacon
Chief of Fire Department

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF APPEAL

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

The Board of Appeal considered thirty-four applications for relief from the provisions of the building laws. Careful consideration was given each case, having in mind improvement to property also considering that buildings built before the adoption of the Building Laws to see that in each case there was a distinct improvement to the neighborhood.

A summary of the records of the Board follows:

Being cared for in private families, minors	14
Being cared for in private families, adults	4
Being cared for by private societies, minors	2
Private hospitals	2

On March 20, 1934 this department started installing a numerically arranged filing system. That was accomplished by the office force without hiring any outside additional help. The filing system enables this department to make a report on any active or closed case, as far back as ten years, within one minute.

This department, while conducting the work of aid and relief to unfortunate people in these times of depression, has also contacted different cities and towns for the purpose of adjusting differences and proving claims for rendering aid to cases living in Weymouth and settled elsewhere. Some of these cases date back as far as the year 1926.

The department received, this year, the amount of $75,346.25 from different cities and towns and the State Department of Public Welfare, for welfare aid rendered settled and unsettled cases now living in Weymouth. One of the large items was a check from the City of Boston to the amount of $11,342.00, some of which dated back to the year 1928, approximately 20% of said check being outlawed. Also, by establishing pleasant relations with the Bureau of Old Age Assistance of the City of Boston, this department has been able to collect reimbursement on old age assistance, the first time that Weymouth has been able to obtain reimbursement from Boston on old age assistance cases since the law became effective in 1931.

Although the appropriation was reduced in 1934 over 1933 by a large percent, this department was able to allow the transfer of $38,429.39 to assist other departments who were exceeding their budget. I am pleased to say that although it caused a small overdraft, it was trifling.

This department is frank in admitting that ERA and PWA have helped out a certain percent, and industries have started so that this department has been able to obtain work for different recipients and, in so doing, removed them from the welfare lists.

I take this opportunity to recommend that the appropriations known as No. 1 "town cases", No. 2 "by other towns, etc.", and No. 3 "for other towns", to be under one appropriation all known as "town cases", and in so doing eliminate the necessity of a special town meeting to transfer from one appropriation to another. I also recommend an appropriation of $1000 for special requirements. Also, an appropriation for the purchase of a one and one-half (1½) ton truck to be located at the Town Infirmary. I feel that a truck would pay for itself many times over in general trucking work, such as: Hauling and delivery of wood, collection of household furniture and clothing, for moving families on welfare aid, and other necessary uses.

I wish at this time to take the opportunity to thank all those affiliated with me in the work of the Welfare Department, the Honorable Board of Selectmen for their unbiased decisions and hearty cooperation, the Chief of Police and his men, the Chief of the Fire Department and his men and all other town officials.

Respectfully submitted,

CHANNING T. FURNALD
Director of Public Welfare

REPORT OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE

To the Citizens of Weymouth:

The School Committee herewith submits its annual report for the year 1934.

The annual report of the Superintendent of Schools and the several reports of the department heads contained therein are appended hereto and made a part thereof.

For the first time in many years the decided increase in school attendance has shown signs of disappearing, and it is probable that for the next few years our schools will show no great increase in numbers. There will, therefore, within the immediate future be no building program for which provision must be made by the town.

It has been the aim of the committee during the past year to keep all school property in the best of condition and to add such improvements as opportunity and conditions would warrant. The program which has been initiated by the federal government to encourage and assist in various public works has been utilized to a great extent by the School Department. During the past year a great many projects which come generally under the heading of maintenance of school property are in the nature of new construction and permanent improvement, and would not ordinarily be done, except through a special provision made by the town. It was, however, highly desirable to meet the demand of the Federal Administrator that various forms of useful employment be furnished to citizens of the town who desired to work, and who otherwise had little or no opportunity. Such co-operation meant the readiness to lay out and provide numerous worthy and useful projects, and the ability to furnish needed materials and equipment for the same. The net result of such co-operation has been that work of far greater value than appears upon the cost sheets of the department has been done. Practically half of the maintenance expenditures during the past year have been for such work. This condition will doubtless prevail during the coming year, and it will be the policy of this department in the future as in the past to see to it that work of permanent value is done.

Although school property in general is in better condition than at any time past, we believe for the reasons just stated that we should ask from the town the means by which this other work can be carried on.

For two years there have been no automatic increases in salaries, but during the last year there have been a few readjustments among the lower paid teachers, which fairness seemed to require.

The following is a summary of expenditures during the past year, and estimates for the coming year:

	Expenditures 1934	Estimates 1935
Superintendent	$ 6,500.00	$ 6,500.00

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Members of the School Committee:

I take pleasure in presenting to you my twenty-sixth report, the forty-ninth in the series of annual reports of superintendents of this town.

Special departments and the High School have been covered in the usual way. Attention is called particularly to the reports of the High School Principal, the Director of the Vocational School, the Director of the Weymouth Branch of the Norfolk County Agricultural School, and the Director of Courses of Study.

For the last two years the census figures and the enrollment in the schools have been nearly equal, indicating that the peak of our growth has been reached. With no new construction in town, there is every likelihood that the school population will not increase. In fact, that it will decrease is highly probable. If business conditions improve, many of the older pupils in the High School who are attending because of lack of opportunity to work, and post graduates who are increasing their fitness for business positions, will leave. Then too, there is every indication that the number of pupils to enter the lower grades will grow less, due to the smaller number of marriages during the past five years and the consequent reduction in the possible number of children to enter the first grade. School men everywhere recognize the possibilities for shrinkage from both of these causes.

The number of buildings now in use has been increased from 15 to 18. This increase is accounted for by: the new garage in the rear of the High School; the reopening of the Old Adams School (recently re-named the John Adams to distinguish it from the New Adams, to be called hereafter the Abigail Adams); and the Center Portable, which has been made into a permanent structure of four rooms, and will be called the Center School.

It is never possible to anticipate change in population, and crowding of buildings usually occurs in those localities least expected. Expense can always be held down by crowding children into inadequate quarters and giving them poor facilities for work. This is poor business practice, although it may keep down the per capita cost.

The opening of new classrooms was caused by crowded conditions at the High School, the Center Portable, and in the Opportunity Class. One eighth and three seventh grades were moved from the Junior Annex and taken care of by reopening the Old Adams, by dividing one of the large rooms in the Washington, and by using the manual training room in the Vocational School. Two new rooms were added to the Center Portable.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

High School	Daniel L. O'Donnell Ruth Tirrell
-------------	-------------------------------------

Many changes in the teaching force have taken place during the year. There have been twenty vacancies from various causes: ten resigned to be married; three left to accept other positions; two asked for leave of absence; three retired under the Teachers' Retirement Act; one left because of ill health; and one died.

Miss Annie J. McGreevy, who had taught continuously in the Washington School since 1885, a period of forty-nine years, passed away on October 30, after a period of only three days illness. So great were her tenacity of purpose and consecration to her life work that she insisted on going to school the Friday preceding her death, even against the advice and better judgment of her physician and others. Miss McGreevy's presence will be missed by those who have profited from her instruction, and by her many friends of long standing in the School Department.

Retired

High School	Mary C. Humphrey
James Humphrey School	Ina M. Ambach
Pratt School	Nellie M. Holbrook

Three more names have been added to the list of those who have retired under the Teachers' Retirement Act, making a total since 1914 of nine, and one retired for disability. There are still nine teachers over sixty years of age who are eligible for retirement.

Miss Nellie M. Holbrook began her service by teaching two terms out of town, and the remainder of her time was spent in the district in which she was born, from 1890 to 1934, a period of forty-four years. The parents, teachers, and pupils of the Pratt School district miss her presence. All who have come in contact with Miss Holbrook during her long period of service are truly grateful for the benefits of her faithful and unswerving devotion to duty.

Miss Mary C. Humphrey came to the Weymouth High School in 1916 after a rich and varied experience of twelve years in public and private schools. A woman of high scholarly attainments and the finest of ideals, Miss Humphrey was exceptionally well trained for the teaching of English and German. She won the loyalty and respect of many, both pupils and teachers.

Miss Ina M. Ambach taught in the James Humphrey School since September, 1924, following an experience of twenty-four years in other towns. During that period she was a staunch supporter of all that pertained to the James Humphrey School and the entire School Department. Citizens as well as teachers and pupils realize her worth and regret her absence from school activities.

There have been thirty-six appointments, covering a wide range of activity from teachers in permanent positions to building assistants and part-time teachers. Due to the resignations of so many teachers on the higher rate of salary, it was possible to hire a greater number at the low rate, thus giving assistance in buildings which have needed it for a number of years. Nearly all of these teachers are without experience and require much time and supervision from Mrs. McGrath, who has charge of this type of work. The assistant in the Agricultural Department at the High School is furnished by the Norfolk County Agricultural School without expense to the town, and was added to the department owing to the increase in numbers. The excess of appointments over vacancies is due in some measure to the fact that all who were serving on a very small salary have been raised to the minimum amount required by the State and have been elected as regular teachers.

For a short time John M. Kilroy appeared on the pay roll as a teacher in the Commercial Department of the High School, with duties as a coach for football. He secured a position in one of the Boston high schools at practically double his salary here, but remained as a coach during the fall period, receiving minor compensation from the Committee.

The spirit shown by the pupils was admirable, large numbers practicing until late in the afternoon. Football requires more attention. The men teachers in the High School have volunteered to give additional training during the winter months to prepare the boys for fall practice. In order to get facility in handling the ball we are now encouraging all pupils in the seventh and eighth grades to play basketball. Two teams have been formed in each of seven buildings. With a second football area now being completed, it will be possible to encourage the children to play soccer and touch football, thus bringing about a greater knowledge of football technique. We have a splendid field and expect to have creditable teams in the near future. The fence around the field has been completed at no expense to the town. Various activities of the High School have provided necessary funds, the unpaid balance being assumed by the Football Association, which will benefit most actively from its use.

The function of the Opportunity Class has never been discussed in any of the school reports. The work of such classes is valuable, and is fundamental in any school structure. When pupils enter school at the age of five, they are apparently alike, but from the moment they are placed in a class, they differ. The span of their attention varies. Pupils in a first grade are given instruction at first for a period of ten minutes. Then this period is increased to fifteen, to twenty, and more until in the upper grades, recitations may be held for forty five minutes. Some children, however, never develop the ability to maintain attention and the teachers cannot keep them interested for a period longer than from ten to fifteen minutes. These children may be as intelligent and as able as any in the system, but from the moment of entering school they should be separated into small divisions and given individual attention. That is the work of the Opportunity Class. All classrooms are opportunity classes, but this is a special opportunity class according to the need of the individual pupil. I feel that this work should be emphasized even more than at the present time, as by so doing children who might perhaps be misjudged become a source of pride to their parents and are given a chance, through specialized opportunity, to become valuable members of the community.

The question is frequently raised as to whether post graduates should be given additional training. Some communities have refused; others have made tuition charges. It has been the policy of this department, however, to give educational opportunity to all who can benefit by it, provided the desire for advancement and the willingness to work hard are present. The N. R. A. code and union regulations have practically eliminated young people from industrial positions. The duty appears to rest upon the communities through their public school systems to provide for additional training for these young people in order that they may worthily fill positions of responsibility when the occasion offers.

A little over a year ago the federal government started the policy of furnishing labor, both skilled and unskilled, in generous amounts to those communities which were willing to co-operate by providing supervision, material, and equipment. The opportunity for getting valuable work done has been unparalleled, but unfortunately most communities and many departments of communities, as in this town, have been left in the position of the Israelites, who were asked to make brick without straw. With no provision made by the appropriating body of the town to meet this wonderful opportunity, the departments were faced with the necessity of furnishing the money from their own limited funds. In the School Department money has been taken from the maintenance, transportation and textbook accounts, and even the coal bins have been depleted to initiate and complete projects which are and will be of great value. Even a novice in financial matters can realize that a quarter of a million dollars to be spent for labor will require a large amount of material. The department was faced with a problem which could be solved in two ways: first, by providing work which would not require much material and would necessarily be of little permanent value; and second, by constructing works of a permanent and lasting value requiring expenditures for material. The last method was employed, but it was necessary to penalize other activities in order to do it.

PROJECT NO. 1

The first project, the building of a garage for the vocational school for the purpose of eliminating the crowded and dangerous conditions under which the boys were working, was completed on June 28. This building, a picture of which will be found in the Vocational School report, covers an area of clear space 60 x 80 with no supporting pillars. It is of first-class construction and is a credit to the quality of labor which was secured through the local E. R. A. The building is without question one of the best constructed for the purpose in this state, and accommodates at present between 60 and 70 boys who are taking work in automobile repair. Aside from supervision and trucks, the government furnished all labor and part of the materials. A tabulation of the expenditures upon the garage, together with the construction of the road in the rear of the High School, curbs for the same, and grading, is given below:

Town	*Labor and Material	1933	$2,859.29
		1934	6,007.51	$8,866.80
Government	Labor and Material			9,286.55
				18,153.35

*Note:—The item for labor and material paid by the town covers not only the work contemplated in the original plans for the shell of the building, but also expense for electric wiring, plumbing, heating, and furnishing the interior. Many of these items might not be considered as construction costs.

PROJECT NO. 2

The second project, grading of the grounds around the Pond School and the erection of a large amount of wall around the property, together with leveling, grading, and finishing of the drives and walks, did not require so much material, but did call for a large amount of labor. The proportionate costs of this project to the town and to the government are as follows:

Town	Labor and Material	1933	$ 469.23
Government	Labor and Material		4,804.20
			<hr/>
			5,273.48

PROJECT NO. 3

The third project, painting of buildings, has required the services of from ten to eighteen painters and has covered a period of nearly nine months. The town has furnished supervision and equipment, and the government, labor. An enumeration of the work done in the different buildings may be of interest:

- Bicknell School: Inside work: hall, corridors of first section, eight classrooms, sewing room, teachers' room, principal's office, entrance rooms off lobby, and some work in basement.
- Jefferson School: Inside painting throughout.
- Hunt School: Drawing room, lunch room floors, and corridors in basement.
- High School: Walls and ceilings of entire second wing and hall in first wing.
- Edward B. Nevin School: Thoroughly painted outside and inside.
- New Adams School: Painting outside.
- Old Adams School: Thoroughly painted outside and inside.
- Center Portable: Four rooms painted outside and inside.

The costs as paid by the town and federal governments were as follows:

Town - Labor and Material	$2,981.53
Government - Labor	6,836.40
	<hr/>
	$9,817.93

PROJECT NO. 4

Pointing and Brick Laying:

Bicknell School: Outside walls of hall and parapets repointed and entrance repaired.

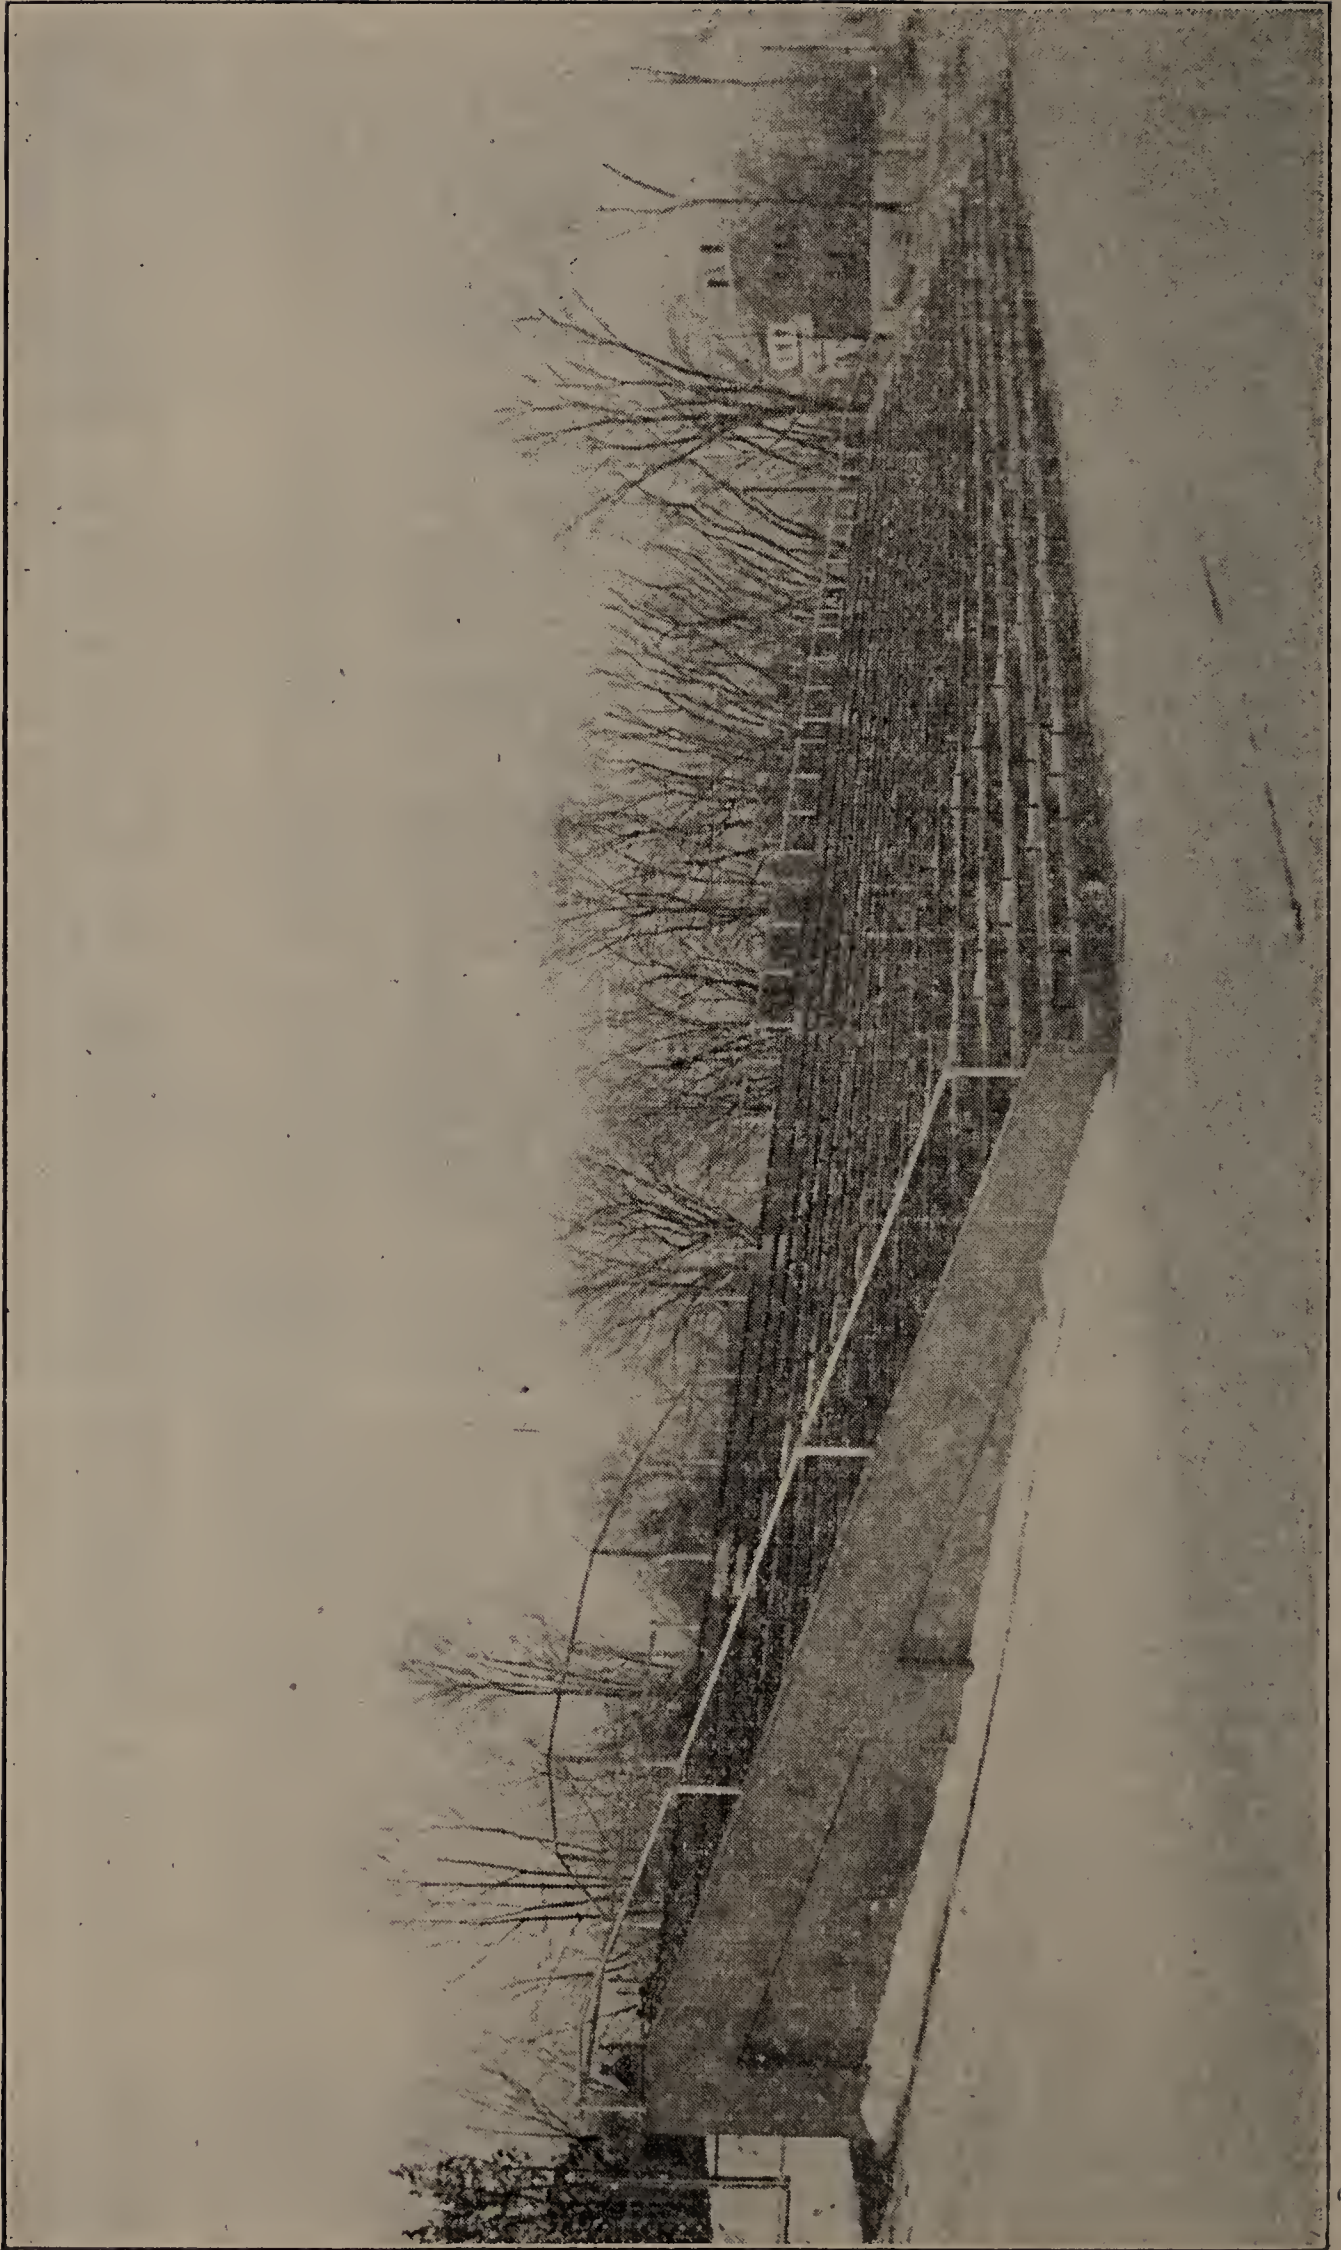

High School: Entire eastern exposure of old building and southern and western walls of first wing repointed; fireproof battery room and a manual training room for the boys of the opportunity class constructed in basement of old building.

The costs to the town and to the government were as follows:

Town - Labor and material	$ 71.04
Government - Labor	1,234.00
	<hr/>
	$1,305.00

PROJECT NO. 5

The building of the first grand stand on Legion Memorial Field filled a long felt want and has added to the appearance and desirability of that area for public purposes. The plans were adapted from blue prints, secured through Stone & Webster, of a stand which was built by them in North Easton for Mrs. Louis A. Frothingham in memory of her husband, former Congressman from this district. Mrs. Frothingham very generously consented to the use of the drawings for this purpose. The grand stand is built of solid concrete resting upon a ledge foundation, is 200 feet long, 14 tiers high, and will seat approximately 1200 persons. A second grand stand, together with a retaining wall, is now being constructed along the road on the baseball side of the field.

The costs to the town and to the government were as follows:

Town - Labor and material	$4,503.05
Government - Labor	6,040.80
	<hr/>
	$10,543.85

PROJECT NO. 6

We have a peculiar condition in the center of the town, in that there are many houses on the shores of Whitman Pond which are rented during the spring, summer, and fall months, but many of the tenants leave during the winter period. In September there were so many pupils at the Center Portable that it was impossible to take care of them. In addition, the pupils suffered so much from the cold last winter it was not advisable to continue the use of the portable without additional heating facilities. A two-room portable was brought from the Edward B. Nevin School, South Weymouth, and connected with the original portable by permanent construction. The new area covers a space 50 x 24 feet, with a fireproof heating room underneath. Both portables were reinforced and made permanent in construction with insulating material on the ceilings and new floors. New toilets and ventilation were installed in the new area, making the building conform in every respect to the state law. I believe it is the consensus of opinion that this building now has four classrooms as attractive, convenient and usable as any in town. In comparison with a new building, this work was done at a minimum of cost. Figures are given below:

Town - Labor and material	$4,503.05
Government - Labor	3,960.00
	<hr/>
	$8,463.05

HIGH SCHOOL

(Report of Mr. F. W. Hilton, Principal)

Conditions of unemployment among the young still continue to crowd our school population. We found it necessary last fall to take two additional rooms from the Junior Annex and to increase a large number of our divisions, which, in the past, have been limited to approximately twenty-five, until now many of them run over thirty-five. While the effect of large divisions may not militate against good work, we still feel that it throws a larger burden of responsibility upon the faithful performance of the student, with less and less individual attention on the part of the teacher. This may, of course, produce a larger number of failures and repetitions, entailing the loss of a year's work, together with the waste of time and the yearly cost of student education.

We have endeavored to trace the effect of our increased student load through a careful check-up of the eight-week markings; and while the number of A's and failures remains fairly constant and normal, there seems to be a slight increase in the number who are receiving only a passing mark and a corresponding decrease in those receiving more than 80 percent.

There have been few changes in the curriculum, mainly in the Domestic Science course, which is controlled and supported by the State. We have also added Biology, which was demanded by the requirements of those preparing for the nursing profession. In the business department, Gregg shorthand has been replacing the Chandler method, and last June finished the Chandler group. Two years will be allotted to the Gregg in place of the three years demanded by the Chandler.

The distribution of students in the school at the end of the first marking period is as follows:

Two things of prime importance in a successful school are regular attendance and the systematic performance of allotted tasks. It would seem that we should have no cause to complain in the matter of attendance when our school averages about 93% to 95%, but a closer investigation will show that the matter of poor attendance is largely due to a few scattered individual cases. Some of them may be truancy cases; but many of them have variant causes, so that they lose from one to two days each week. In most cases these students are of poor calibre and are unable to carry their work successfully, even with the utmost help of the teacher in trying to secure make-up work. We still have a large number who are able to convince their parents that no home work is necessary, although from an actual analysis of their program we should find it necessary for them to prepare four major subjects in less than one and one-half hours of study time allotted to them during the school day. We feel that every parent who is anxious for his child to have a successful year should see that at least two lessons are prepared at home, and that each student has a regular time for home study. It is our opinion that the variation in marks is more largely due to the variation in study than it is to the variation in mental equipment.

I wish to commend the physicians of the town for a thorough examination of all entering students in regard to health, posture, and physical defects. The Chadwick Clinic has also had its annual checkup. I believe that this work is very important, inasmuch as health of body is necessary to the welfare of all youth.

In conjunction with health, we might well speak of our athletic activities during the past fall and commend the enthusiasm of our student body for participating in such large numbers. This increase in athletic activity necessitates a larger expenditure of funds, which we hope to be able to secure through an increase in gate returns because of our inclosed field. Much credit is due to the Superintendent and the School Committee for providing such excellent facilities. While this, our first season under the new conditions, is not a heavy financial success owing to a series of rainy Saturdays, we, nevertheless, noted a distinct improvement. With suitable co-operation on the part of the faculty and student body, there seems no reason why our athletic outlook should not be bright.

The usual number of outside student activities are functioning in a healthy way. The library is holding its usual classes wherein the student body is being taught to use reference works and other library equipment intelligently. I believe one of the important features that should be commended is the active interest shown by the student council in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the school. Our school magazine has proved very successful under the management of the faculty adviser, Mr. Brown. Work of this kind is highly valuable to our English department and should receive the approval and support of all the student body.

Much credit is due to the Superintendent, the School Committee, and the townspeople in general that the school facilities have been maintained during these trying times with such high efficiency.

We wish to give credit both to the donors and to the students who won the following awards:

Monday Club	Dorothy Sprague
Weymouth Teachers' Association	Robert Mayo
Weymouth Teachers' Association	Agnes Galligan

In the final analysis, a successful school must comprise a student body that is well-intentioned and a faculty that is earnestly endeavoring to work for the best interests of all concerned. I feel that this is true in a large measure at Weymouth High, and I wish to express my sincere appreciation to both students and faculty for their hearty co-operation.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

(Report of Mr. Francis E. Whipple, Jr., Director)

In September, the Automobile Repair Department moved into the new C.W.A. and E.R.A. built garage which is shown in the accompanying photographs. For a long time this department, always the most popular among entering students, has been struggling along with quarters about one-third large enough and inadequately lighted and equipped. Moving them to a separate, practically fireproof building has removed a serious fire hazard from the main building.

Much in the way of ventilation, tools, and equipment should be provided in 1935 to give the greatly increased number of boys taking this work proper working facilities. Constant changes in automobile design require that annual additions of new tools be made to service the new cars properly.

NEW VOCATIONAL SCHOOL GARAGE

The old quarters were immediately appropriated for the manual training room and a wood-finishing room.

The Cabinetmaking Department during the year has made several very creditable items of furniture. The speaker's lectern for the hall, done in quartered oak and nicely finished, is an especially fine piece of workmanship. Another piece for the hall was a radio loud-speaker cabinet of pleasing design and skillful workmanship. Eighteen teachers' desks to replace some in use for a great many years and to furnish new classrooms were constructed. In addition to these outstanding jobs, there was the usual wide range of furniture and equipment built for the various schools and for the new garage.

Early in the year the Printing Department submitted for criticism to "The Inland Printer," leading technical journal of the industry, a large portfolio of samples from the school's file of completed jobs. The editor's review was given at some length and included such sentences as: "Presswork, too, is excellent." "Most of the other specimens are high grade; in fact, we do not recall receiving specimens from any other American school that are finer." "Some of the programs, folders, and covers of the 'Reflector' are striking, attractive and interesting in a degree but seldom evident in work from schools."

The High School publication, the "Reflector", is the joint product of the staff and the Printing Department. The staff prepares the copy and reads the proofs. The art editor supervises and prepares drawings, sketches, and linoleum blocks for the covers in consultation with the Art and Printing Departments. The actual planning, format, and details of production are done in the shop. Every effort is made to have the book as attractive as possible, consistent with the time available for its production. The results of this close co-operation is that Weymouth has a school paper and year book far superior to that of the average high school.

For the Thanksgiving Day football game with Hingham we planned and printed a de luxe twenty-four page illustrated souvenir booklet which was sold at the gate for the benefit of the Athletic Association. It included pictures of both teams, the coaches, captains, and quarterbacks, and other interesting illustrations. It is probable that this project will be carried on annually.

This fall the printing instructor submitted a layout in the calendar design contest conducted by Tileston & Hollingsworth., papermakers, of Boston. In competition with many commercial printers and designers in the New England area this design was awarded honorable mention.

For slightly more than a year the Printing Department has followed a policy of doing work only for the School Department. This move was a very wise one in the interests of proper instruction of the pupils and should not be abandoned. Before the adoption of this policy the shop at times resembled a factory more than a classroom, and it was necessary to skimp or even omit entirely instruction on very essential items.

People sometimes ask what is used for instruction. It can be said emphatically that there has never been lacking an ample supply of school and school activity printing to provide productive work for the boys. With fewer jobs of a low-grade repetitive nature, there is sufficient time to include many of the more difficult types of work in the course of study. Among these are embossing, die-cutting, process color work, and the application of recognized design principles to the planning of printing jobs. To take on additional work from whatever source with the present equipment and enrollment could do no good to the students and conceivably do much harm. If we are to maintain the standards so well spoken of by "The Inland Printer" we certainly cannot afford to turn the school into a production unit and thereby sacrifice the boys' future advancement in the trade.

The enrollment in the Automobile Department is much larger than last year, due probably to more roomy and attractive quarters. The Printing stands at the same point as before, but the Cabinetmaking has fallen off slightly. The net change for the entire school was an increase of six. The table below gives the enrollment in detail.

	I	II	III	Post-Grad.	Total
Auto Repair	38	20	11	2	71
Cabinetmaking	7	6	9	0	22
Printing	19	5	8	1	33
Total	64	31	28	3	126

An analysis of the figures shows that twenty of the freshman class had attended a high school for one year or more before entering here. We also have enrolled fifteen boys living outside of Weymouth, whose tuition is paid by their home towns. These boys daily travel long distances at their own expense for schooling, and their tuition is an important source of revenue to the town.

May I express at this time my appreciation for the splendid support and co-operation which has been freely given during the past year by all with whom I have had dealings.

AGRICULTURE

(Report of Mr. Hilmer S. Nelson, Agricultural Instructor in charge of the Weymouth Branch of the Norfolk County Agricultural School)

This present period of economic adjustment strongly emphasizes the necessity of strengthening those factors which will tend to make a more stable living, for the sooner the people learn more about the soil and those things that live upon it, the greater use will be made of leisure time which is bound to come with the shorter day and the shorter week. The day of the so-called "one-man farm" is not far distant; it will gradually take the place of the large farm with its excessive overhead and correspondingly less profit. The future holds much for the comparatively small farm. It is to these situations that the present day students of agriculture will tend to migrate.

The opening of school on September 10, 1934 showed another healthy increase, with an enrollment of thirty-five students. This increase necessitated the hiring of another instructor to assist in a much more effective and a much broader teaching program, together with a closer supervision of the home and supervised project. I am very glad to announce the appointment of Mr. John B. Farrar, a recent graduate of the Massachusetts State College, as assistant instructor in charge of the horticultural phase of our work. These thirty-five students were enrolled as follows:

Seniors	1	Sophomores	12
Juniors	8	Freshmen	14

It is encouraging to note the increase from year to year, with the exception of slight decreases in 1928 and 1931, the ten-year average is 23.3 students.

1925	17	1930	24
1926	18	1931	21
1927	20	1932	26
1928	19	1933	29
1929	24	1934	35

Of the four seniors who were graduated in June, 1934, three are in agricultural work; namely, one a student at the Massachusetts State College, one on his own poultry farm, and one working on a dairy farm.

The project year ended on October 15, 1934, with twenty-seven students carrying twenty-eight different ownership projects or working on farm or other supervised agricultural enterprises. It has been exceedingly difficult to place our boys on farms because of the intense labor problem. Our annual productivity summaries disclose many interesting facts, and among these are the following:

1. Number and types of home ownership projects:
18 poultry; 6 chick; 1 garden; 1 potato; 2 pure bred dairy calf
2. Breeds of poultry kept:
Rhode Island Reds; White Plymouth Rocks; Barred Plymouth Rocks.
3. Breed of dairy calves: Guernsey.
4. Actual receipts from home projects: $2581.96
Actual expenses of home projects: 1375.61
- Actual profit $1206.35
5. Number of hours worked on home projects: 391 $\frac{3}{4}$
6. Number of hours worked on other supervised agricultural enterprises: 14,169 $\frac{1}{4}$, with a value of \$2610.84.

Again we wish to thank Mr. Albert H. Kress of Hingham and his brother, Mr. Paul E. Kress, also of Hingham, for their splendid co-operation and assistance in allowing our groups the use of their respective dairy and vegetable farms one forenoon a week for practical farm practice.

To Mr. Edward A. Hirt of South Weymouth and to Mr. Warren T. Fogg of East Braintree we wish to extend our thanks for their earnest help in allowing our poultry group the use of their poultry farms as sources of much information.

To our Superintendent, Mr. Parker T. Pearson, and to our Principal, Mr. Fred W. Hilton, may we extend many thanks for their timely help and friendly co-operation.

In closing, this department stands ready to give freely of its service to the people of Weymouth.

COURSES OF STUDY

(Report of Flora Haviland McGrath, Director of Courses of Study) General Remarks

In the report for 1933, definite plans were set forth for accomplishment or consideration in 1934. These plans have been carried out, as far as possible, together with others that would contribute beneficially to the elementary school program.

Language Activities

Although careful attention has been given to each subject in the curriculum, the major concentration has been in the field of language activities because of necessity and because of the close alliance of language to all other school subjects.

In January 1934, one of the standard language error tests was given in grades IV and V for the second time during the school year. Again in May and June, the third language error test was given in grades IV and V, and a general English test given in grades VI, VII, and VIII. In October 1934, a general testing in English was made in grades IV through VIII.

After correcting the tests, the median for each class was found, the complete record sent to each teacher, and the tests returned to the children.

It is interesting to note the steady improvement in these language records.

One of the activities called for in the course of study in English is the publication of a school paper. While a number of the schools issued bulletins and newspapers that were very good, the pupils and teachers of the Junior Annex and those of the Bicknell School are worthy of high commendation for their excellent publications, namely, "The Champion" and "The Wessagusset."

Grade I Survey

In March 1934, a general survey of word recognition, phonetics, oral and written spelling, and number facts was made in grade I. Ten children were chosen from each class, six from the A division and four from the B. A complete record of every first grade in town was presented to each teacher. The widest variation in medians seemed to come in oral and written spelling. A meeting was held after the record was completed, and changes in procedure were made wherever it seemed advisable to do so.

Spelling

In accordance with the plans as set forth in the report of 1933, a complete survey of spelling was made throughout the town in January 1934. Tests were given in all grades from II through VIII. All papers were corrected and returned to the children with comments on writing and general appearance on each paper. The median for each room was taken and a complete report of the testing sent to each teacher. Methods of teaching were discussed at a meeting following the testing. Wherever the results were particularly poor, a change in teaching methods was recommended.

A complete adoption of "Everyday Spelling" by Suzzallo, Pearson, and Hillegas (published by American Book Company) was made for grades IV, V, and VI.

Interest in spelling was highly stimulated in 1934 through the nation-wide contest conducted by the Hearst newspapers. The Metropolitan Boston championship was won by David Andrew Ward of the Junior Annex, who, through his excellent work, was given the privilege of competing in the finals at Washington.

I wish to acknowledge with thanks and appreciation the successful work of the Old Colony Club in conducting a spelling match with the children of South Weymouth. The generous award made by the club to the winner, Mary Rockwood of the Pratt School, has the appreciation of the entire school system.

Arithmetic

In 1932, a survey of arithmetic was made in grades V and VI in which the New Stanford Arithmetic Test was used. This was followed in 1933 by other testing, and in April 1934 tests taken from "Modern School Arithmetic" were given in grades VII and VIII. These tests were corrected, and a record made of the medians, the number of perfect papers, the number of failures, and the types of errors most common. As a result of these records, there was a definite indication that while the wide variation in medians in the same grade might be attributed to the general ability of the class, it might also be attributed to teaching methods and manner of procedure.

In October 1934, the New Stanford Arithmetic Test was given in grades VII and VIII. The results showed the Weymouth pupils to be about six months ahead of the national norms in computation, and about four months ahead in reasoning.

Geography

The work in geography is progressing satisfactorily under the Atwood-Thomas plan as given in the geographies adopted in 1933.

Other Courses not Revised

The courses which I have had little time to check and revise up to this time are those in history, civics, and science. It is planned to make some changes in history in grades VII and VIII; to outline a more uniform course in citizenship and civics; and to give more attention to a science course for grade VIII.

Extra Curricular Activities

In addition to the regular duties, I conducted the usual coaching program, which included the following: the High School operetta, "South in Sonora," with the assistance of Miss Ernestine R. Canning, of the French Department; "The Bat," a three-act play by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood, given by the graduating class; and "Counsellor-at-Law," a three-act play by Elmer Rice, presented by the Weymouth Teachers' Association for the benefit of the scholarship fund.

Courses

For a number of years the custom has been to have courses for the teachers given at the High School. In the past we have had courses in English, art, and geography. This year, Mr. Daniel L. O'Donnell, attorney, who is now on a year's leave of absence from his duties as instructor in history and civics at the Weymouth High School, gave an excellent course on the Constitution. We are grateful to Mr. O'Donnell for this well-organized, instructive course and for his helpful book on the subject.

Plans for 1935

1. To continue testing in English and arithmetic
2. To revise the history course
3. To procure a uniform course of study in citizenship and civics for grades VII and VIII.
4. To reorganize the course of study in science in grade VIII
5. To co-operate with the teachers in the building of a tentative program in character education.

Conclusion

I wish to extend to Mr. Pearson, Superintendent of Schools, my continued appreciation for the trust which he has placed in me, and to the principals and teachers, I wish to extend my thanks for their co-operation.

DENTAL CLINIC

(Report of Miss Alice A. Conroy, Dental Hygienist)

The annual examination of all children in the first six grades took place as usual. Of 2,435 examined, 2,260 needed dental service and 175 were in perfect condition. The per cent of perfect mouths at the time of examination exceeded that of previous years, in spite of prolonged economic stress which would tend to undermine all standards of living, especially children's dentistry. No doubt the timely establishment of our school dental service has helped to offset reactions caused by the inability of many parents to have the dental defects of their children corrected.

The following is a summary of the clinic activities:

Number patients	391
Number fillings	200
Temporary teeth	56
Permanent teeth	144
Number extractions:	494
Temporary teeth	282
Permanent teeth	212
Number treated for temporary relief of Toothache	95

In the spring, a national survey was conducted to determine the dental needs of the school children throughout the United States. Weymouth was called upon to contribute to this survey. The re-examination of 264 of our children took place. These examinations were made by three of the dentists now serving at the clinic.

The following dentists of this town give one morning a month of their time to the school clinic.

Weymouth:

Dr. A. P. Beardsley
Dr. C. P. Whittle
Dr. D. F. Whittle

East Weymouth:

Dr. G. H. McGrath
Dr. H. M. Myles
Dr. William O'Halloran
Dr. H. M. Stetson

South Weymouth:

Dr. E. F. Danehy
Dr. D. B. Nye

At this time I should like to thank the above named dentists for their generosity, and the principals, teachers, and janitors for their kindness in transporting the children to and from the clinic.

DRAWING

(Report of Miss Evelyn Silvester, Supervisor of Drawing)

During the past two or three years the teaching force of the Drawing Department has been considerably upset, but last year with the part-time assistance of Miss Vera B. Freeman and now with her full-time work, things seem to be settling themselves to a new routine which we hope will be permanent.

The creative work being developed in the grades has made progress, and with the continued co-operation of the teachers it should continue to grow. Our aim in this type of work is to allow the spirit and natural ease of graphic expression in the small child to be encouraged and developed as the child grows older. Too often this ease of expression is stifled to a point where one is afraid to try to draw because of an overdeveloped critical sense or a fear of ridicule. To develop the child's own conception of a thing, to guide and lead without imposing ideas, is what makes this type of teaching especially difficult. It calls for great skill on the part of the teacher, for her group is no longer a class, but the individual becomes the unit.

This fall, Miss Ray has organized and is carrying on an after-school class of especially talented children in the Junior Annex. The requirements for admission are rigid. Each applicant must be in good standing in his regular work, be steady in his attendance, and pass an art test before being admitted. As this group is limited to ten, and there were forty applications, one can easily imagine the difficulty in making the final selection. The work which this group is doing is of a more advanced kind not easily accomplished with a large class. So far, this venture has proved to be more than worth the time and labor expended in its behalf.

During 1934 there were two puppet shows given: one our own, "Rip Van Winkle;" and the other a professional one by the Tatterman Marionettes, the play being "Dick Whittington." The proceeds from these shows is used for scholarships for students wishing an art school education. We have awarded one such scholarship this year to Miss Lucy Pomarico, who is attending the New England Art School in Boston.

The work of the Opportunity Class is of constant interest. The many useful articles made by the children are finished with a skill that would put many an adult to shame.

With the addition of Mr. Driscoll to the handwork part of this class, a larger field is opened up, especially for the boys, in the making of simple pieces of furniture and the repairing and refinishing of many chairs which are brought for reseating.

The work of this class is on sale throughout the year at any time, but on occasional days a definite exhibition and sale is carried on. Orders are gladly taken for any of the numerous articles which are made here. Visitors are welcome.

SCHOOL GARDENS

(Report of Miss Sarah E. Brassill, Supervisor of School Gardens and Clubs)

It seems best in this report to review the work from the beginning. In the report for 1915, I find a recommendation to employ a teacher to supervise the work; to conduct demonstration plots; to work with the children after school; to visit the gardens during the summer. The work was to "continue as much of the year as the climate will permit" and "every plot of ground—be made to produce as large a quantity of vegetables and flowers as possible."

In 1916 it was my privilege to begin the work which has been in my charge continuously since that time. In the report for that year I find these sentences: "The special teacher can plan and guide the work, but the results come from co-operation. To the excellent school spirit in Weymouth and to the loyal support of the teachers, is due the credit for our success, and I hereby acknowledge it with many thanks." Looking back over the years that have intervened, I find every reason to repeat and to emphasize that statement. Children and teachers have been cordially helpful. Supervisors in other departments have lent a willing hand. Parents have been in sympathy. Help has come repeatedly from the business and professional element of the town. Every effort to make the work fit into the needs of the town and the times has been supported.

The needs have changed with the changing conditions. New lines of work have been added. Methods and devices have varied, but the underlying purpose has remained unchanged. This year the economic value of the work is again in evidence. Small home gardens have done their part in keeping up the morale of the home. We still have the land and the time. The young people stand ready to use both to advantage.

MANUAL TRAINING

(Report of Miss Alice L. Tucker, Supervisor of Manual Training)

The main object of manual training in the grades is not to turn out carpenters, but to teach the child to think, to be accurate, careful, and persistent, as well as to have some sense of responsibility, and so to make him a better and more desirable member of society.

As usual, mechanical drawing and woodworking were taught in the seventh and eighth grades. Articles made in the seventh grade were quite similar to those in 1933; but, due to the financial condition in many homes, the eighth-grade boys made fewer large pieces of furniture, the various joints and exercises being taught with smaller articles and in some cases by having two boys work together on the same project.

In September, because the High School needed more rooms for academic work, the manual training quarters were moved from the second floor of the Vocational School down to the first floor, using part of the space formerly occupied by the auto-mechanics classes. The tool cage is not yet entirely finished, but we have been able to carry on, although at times with some difficulty, and we hope soon to have things in smooth working order.

Also, in September, we had to include five more classes in our schedule: a seventh grade and eighth grade from the Adams School each going to the Vocational School alternate weeks for their manual training and having a two-hour period, a seventh grade and eighth grade from the Pond School each going to the Edward B. Nevin School alternate weeks for the same length of time, and a seventh grade from the Washington School who go to the Vocational School for a seventy-minute period weekly. The boys having the two-hour lesson every week are able to accomplish much more than the ones having an hour each week.

Because there are now three seventh grades at the Bicknell School, their lessons have had to be cut to forty minutes each, which is altogether too short a time.

In most of the classes throughout the town the interest is good, many of the boys desiring to work beyond regular school hours.

MUSIC

(Report of Mr. Vance W. Monroe, supervisor of Music)

Music in the Weymouth school system progressed this year just as it has for the past few years.

In the High School, the crowded conditions forced the discontinuation of voice training classes. The condition is unfortunate, because this specific training forms the basis of all good choral singing. In spite of these handicaps, the boys' and girls' glee clubs, performing separately and as a single unit, received ratings of excellent in every case at the State contest for band, orchestra and glee clubs held at Melrose. Both these organizations received high honors at Bridgewater in the contest known as the Mayflower Song Festival. This recognition is especially gratifying in that it was Weymouth's first entrance into either of these contests. The boys' and girls' glee clubs are preparing to enter these contests again this coming year. The operetta was, as in past years, another sign of achievements in music by our school children.

In the grades, the work was received in a very satisfactory manner. Both the pupils and the teachers give their hearty co-operation in carrying out their work. This interest in the work is fortunate, because it is only by interest that the work can progress each succeeding year. The grade work has been brought up to a high level by these teachers. As in the past, the schools have put on various programs.

I wish to thank the grade teachers at this time for the indispensable co-operation which they have given me during the past year.

SCHOOL NURSE

(Report of Miss Anna MacDavitt, School Nurse)

As my twelfth year as school nurse closes, I find this work fully as interesting as it was at the beginning.

The generous donations from friends and organizations aided greatly in alleviating much of the distress which otherwise would not have been relieved. Late in 1933 the Stetson Foremen's Association made it possible for Miss Stockwell and me to furnish clothing, shoes, and milk for needy children. The majority assisted came from families which were not welfare cases but had suffered as a result of the continued depression. In January 1934, this same group financed a much-needed eye clinic. Twenty-three students from the High School and sixteen from the grades benefited by this.

The Chadwick Clinic check-up was held from December 5 to 9 inclusive. Eighty children were X-rayed and examined. All showed improvement in their physical condition. Three were recommended for camp next summer. At the previous Chadwick Clinic in 1933, we were advised that four children should be sent to a summer health camp. The Stetson Foremen's Association again came to our aid and made it possible to send three adolescent girls to Norfolk County Health Camp for eight weeks. The fourth child was sent by the Christmas Seal Sales Fund. All four children returned in September greatly improved.

The Rotary Club carried on their tonsil and adenoid clinic as in former years, many children receiving treatment.

The local chapter of the Red Cross supplied milk for undernourished children over a period of six months. The total number of children cared for was fifty.

In March, Dr. A. L. Clark, State Psychiatrist, examined fifty-six children who were either behaviour problems or retarded in their school work. Seventeen were recommended for the Opportunity Class. Six children were found to be non-readers, and are now having special reading instruction in their grades. Two were advised to attend a habit clinic, and two were found who would benefit by institution care for mentally retarded children. The remainder were instructed according to their several needs. This necessitated forming another Opportunity Class. Two more rooms in the High School were given over to these children. Two more teachers were procured: Miss Mary Leonard, to teach academic subjects to the younger group; and Mr. Wallace Driscoll, to take charge of the woodworking class for the older boys. The present enrollment of these classes is forty-eight. There are three children in the class who came at the request of their parents.

The following is a summary of the routine work completed during the year:

General inspections	5230
Weighed and measured	1080
Dressings in school	291
Assisted doctors with examinations	226
Home visits	480
Children taken home	79
Children sent to doctors	112

Excluded for:

Chicken pox	14	Whooping cough	21
Measles	2	Impetigo	17
Mumps	24	Scabies	4
Scarlet fever	2	Pediculosis	20
Sore throats and colds	92

In conclusion, I wish to thank those friends who individually or as members of associations so graciously helped me to care better for our less fortunate children. To our Superintendent, Mr. Pearson, and to the principals and teachers who at all times give me such splendid support, I am deeply grateful.

PENMANSHIP

(Report of Miss Katherine C. Fogarty, Supervisor of Penmanship)

The work in penmanship this year is much the same as during the past few years.

Grades I to VIII inclusive are supervised once in two weeks for a twenty-minute period. During this period a lesson of drills and applied writing is given by the Supervisor, in which correct posture, penholding and forms are stressed.

We are now using four different writing books containing the drills and exercises on which the work is based, and graded to the age and ability of the pupils. This helps to vary the work and makes it easier for the pupils. As in other years, penmanship papers will be sent to the office of the Palmer Company, and diplomas will be received by seventh and eighth grade pupils.

Many of the new teachers have studied the Palmer Method of Business Writing, and so are competent to teach it. Those who have not done so are now practicing the drills required and will no doubt receive a teacher's diploma before the school year is over.

Although perhaps it is not so easy to vary the work in penmanship as in some of the other supervised subjects, still it is easy to awaken enthusiasm in most pupils, and this makes the work very enjoyable.

We are trying, and hope, with the assistance of the teachers, to have the pupils form the habit of good penmanship, which will help them now and be of practical value to them later in life.

SEWING

(Report of Miss Pauline Ahern, Supervisor of Sewing)

During the last school year, the program of sewing has been in a great part a repetition of the work of the previous one in an endeavor to give training in the creation of useful articles.

The fundamental stitches were taught in the completion of a series of projects including a sewing bag, Christmas articles, and pajamas, during which time instruction and practical training in the care and use of a sewing machine were given pupils of the seventh grade.

In addition to the Christmas gifts and skirt and dress projects taken up last year, children's dresses were completed in the eighth grades.

Due to the keen interest, enthusiasm, and industry of the pupils, and co-operation of their parents, successful exhibits were held in each building just before the Christmas vacation.

CONCLUSION

Five years have passed since the beginning of the depression in 1929. During this entire period the town has shown an attitude of which it may well be proud. It has not taken away from the educational privileges of the younger generation; the municipal debt has been reduced materially; a large sum has been contributed for the construction of the sewer; the town has maintained a low tax rate without drawing from the reserve fund or borrowing on tax titles or from the special funds set up by the Commonwealth for the use of those towns in need. The citizens have shown confidence in the future and have refused to be carried off their feet by specious arguments. If the same policy is continued, Weymouth will stand in a strong position to take advantage of the future with its promise of better conditions for all.

The School Department jointly and individually is ready to give generously of its strength and time to promote the welfare of the children and the best interests of the town. My sincere thanks are given to all those who have co-operated during the year: to the School Committee for its sympathetic understanding of school needs; to the teachers for their loyalty; and to the community for its hearty support during a very trying period.

Respectfully submitted,

PARKER T. PEARSON
Superintendent of Schools

ODE TO THE CLASS OF 1934

Helen Harkinson

Pray God that we who now go forth from youth's bright childhood,
 To live as men upon this earth of ours,
 May have the strength, O Lord, of patience in our manhood,
 That we may follow Thee in all our ways.

May the patience of our heart be that heart's power,
 By which our times transcend those gone before,
 And by our faith, O God, be Thou our strongest tower,
 In which our lives may ever follow Thine.

Into the future may our nation lead the way,
 And, to make that future bright with peace,
 Peace must be enthroned within our hearts today;
 The progress of our nation rests with us.

Music by Marshall Bearce

Summer hours: July and August 9 A.M. to 6 P.M. Saturday 9 A.M. to 9 P.M.

Branches: 2 to 5 and 7 to 8 P.M. daily, except Wednesday.

Weymouth Heights Station: 2:30 to 6 and 7 to 8 Thursday.

The library and the branches are not open Sundays, legal holidays, nor the 17th of June.

The library is for the use of all residents of Weymouth. Temporary residents are entitled to the same privileges as permanent residents.

Each card issued to an adult entitles the holder to one book of recent fiction (a book published within the last year) one current periodical, and any reasonable number of other books.

Children under Senior High School age are entitled to a card if the application is signed by a parent or guardian. Cards issued to children entitle the holders to two books, only one of which may be fiction.

All books from the circulating department, except the new fiction, may be kept for 14 days. At the request of the borrower any book not in demand will be charged for one month, subject to recall after two weeks if requested by other borrowers. Fiction published within the last calendar year, and recent numbers of magazines are limited to seven days with no renewal privilege.

The vacation privilege allows a borrower to take books which are not recent publications for an extended time.

A book cannot be transferred from one card to another, but any 14-day book may be renewed at the library, by mail or by *telephone, unless another borrower has asked to have the book reserved. The date due, the author and title of the book, and the borrower's name should be stated when the request for renewal is made.

Any book will be reserved at the request of a borrower, who will be notified as soon as the book is available. A charge of one cent is made for reserving fiction.

A fine of two cents a day will be incurred for each day's detention of a book after it is due. When a book is sent for by the librarian it will be at the expense of the borrower.

Cases of contagious diseases are reported to the library by the Board of Health, and books which have been exposed to contagion are burned.

For the convenience of residents living in different parts of the town, books are exchanged through the stations as follows:

Lovell's Corner, W. B. Chalke & Sons	Tuesday
South Weymouth, Fogg Memorial Library	Tuesday
South Weymouth, Alfred S. Tirrell	Tuesday
East Weymouth, East Weymouth Branch	Thursday
Weymouth Heights, Adams School	Thursday
North Weymouth, North Weymouth Branch	Friday

The library publishes a bulletin of new books several times during the year. This is distributed through the library and its agencies.

What has happened in the Tufts Library
during the years of the Depression
A chart of the library from 1930 to 1934

FIFTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT THE TUFTS LIBRARY

The trustees of the Tufts Library herewith submit the fifty-sixth annual report, covering the work of the library during the year 1934:

This period has brought interesting and challenging problems to the Tufts Library. The actual circulation of books has been less than a year ago, showing that fewer people are seeking books to help them through idle hours, but this is one of the signs of lessened unemployment and as such we welcome it. It is evidenced not alone in our library, but the same report comes from libraries all over the country, and followed immediately upon the inauguration of the government projects under the National Recovery Act. The greatest loss was felt during the weeks of unprecedented cold and storm in the winter months of 1934.

Nevertheless, throughout the year, 179,413 books have been borrowed from the Tufts Library, and new borrowers have been registered on an average of 97 per month. The reference work, especially the work with students, has definitely increased, and the extension work through the schools and the Delivery Stations is tending to spread the services of the library more evenly throughout the town.

It is sometimes helpful to look back over a longer period and see where and how the library is growing, where its service is counting as it should with the public, and where it is desirable to build it up. Such a study of the four year period since the depression was acutely felt in our community reveals that the Tufts Library has increased its book circulation 20% since 1930. That this increase has been largely in the realm of the more purposeful and thoughtful reading is shown by the fact that while the circulation of adult fiction has grown 19%, that of adult non-fiction has grown 41%. The use of the library by the children shows a gain of 13%, greatly augmented by the growth of the school library work, which has increased 111%. The distribution of books through the several delivery stations has grown 113% since 1930, and 26% more of the population of Weymouth are registered as borrowers. All of this increased service has been given with only a 12% increase in the book stock of the library. There is great opportunity for future growth as rapidly as the resources of the library can make this possible.

An evidence of the response of the community to library service is shown very markedly in the use of the Deposit Station which was opened in the Adams School in Weymouth Heights in April 1933. There had been a weekly delivery service through the Economy Store, and during the year previous to the change 2,095 books were circulated through this agency. In 1934, with service only one day a week, 7,555 books were circulated from the station in the Adams School. This is a gain of 360%, and leaves small doubt that library service is appreciated wherever it can be made available.

At North Weymouth the circulation for the year has totaled 34,643. There is a tendency for the two branches at North and East Weymouth to become more nearly uniform in size. The difference in their circulation has been lessening each year. The circulation at East Weymouth for the past year has been 39,682.

At East Weymouth the branch has been moved into new and larger quarters, which are both more advantageous and less expensive. Much credit is due to Mr. Daniel Reidy, the present landlord, who co-operated with the library in every way possible in making the building ready for our occupancy. It is very attractive, and there have been a great many appreciative comments from the people of the community.

The year has been busy and fruitful in the work with the boys and girls, and it is especially gratifying to note the growth of the work with schools. This year we have served five kindergartens and twelve schools, with a total school circulation of 4,472 books. In the month of June alone the record shows a classroom circulation of 1,575 from the 345 books loaned by the library to the schools.

The educational work of the library is aided by the exhibits which relate the varied interests of the boys and girls to books. Two very attractive window displays were made by the Tayanita Camp-fire, who loaned samples of their handiwork. Model airplanes were loaned by Francis Moss, a junior at the Weymouth High School, and a tiny hand-carved covered wagon and oxen was loaned by Miss Marie Sullivan, Librarian of the Parker Hill Branch of the Boston Public Library.

Of unusual value was the Good Book Week exhibit which linked books with hobbies of all descriptions. It is estimated that approximately 250 children and many adults were daily visitors to this exhibit. It is impossible to estimate the educational value of such an exhibit. Essays on the hobbies, and the help available in books, were submitted by boys and girls in the seventh and eighth grades throughout the town, and books were given as prizes by the librarian and children's librarian to the winner in each grade.

This year, for the first time in the history of this or any other State, the Governor of Massachusetts issued a proclamation setting aside a week in October as "Free Public Library Week". The Tufts Library co-operated with other libraries in the state in the celebration of this week, and has throughout the following weeks published weekly articles or book reviews in the Weymouth Gazette as one means of promoting the spirit of this undertaking. The library appreciates the co-operation of the Gazette in giving us a weekly column in the paper.

A few repairs were necessary during the year for the upkeep of the library property. The gutter pipes were again cleaned, and with the help of the Street Department a drain was laid under the sidewalk at the northwest corner of the building. The electric wiring in the Main Library was changed sufficiently to give adequate insulation and to bring the current through a single meter. New lighting fixtures in the Reading Room greatly improve the light for reading and are much appreciated by the public. The stack lighting is still inadequate, and should be improved.

From December 1933 until June 1934 the library gave employment to a group of women under the C.W.A. and allied government projects. The chief help rendered by these workers was in the mending of books, and the re-filing of some of the old catalog cards. The Tufts Library has been glad to co-operate in this work of providing greatly needed employment.

There has been one change in the personnel of the staff during the year. On April first Miss Marie Powers, a part-time worker in the library during the past four and one half years, left us to be married. Miss Elizabeth Whittle has been secured in her place. Three of our part-time workers have this year taken the six weeks summer school course at Simmons College School of Library Science, thus enlarging their own abilities and their usefulness to the library.

The trustees were deeply saddened by the death on December 3rd of Mr. Arthur E. Pratt, for twelve years a member of the Board of Trustees of the Tufts Library. His deep interest in the library and his faithful service will be greatly missed. He gave generously of his time and his energy, and it is not possible to estimate his service as a trustee.

The trustees wish to extend their sincere thanks to the following persons for gifts of books:

Miss Annie Richards, Miss Marietta C. Bates, Miss Martha J. Hawes, Mr. Ralph Hayward, Prof. Marshall L. Perrin, Mr. Franklin N. Pratt, Mr. W. A. Fairburn, Mr. Edward A. Filene, Mr. Warwick Greene, Mr. T. F. Thieme, Mr. Waldo Turner, and Mr. G. B. Lamberti. Other volumes have been generously contributed by the Susannah Tufts Chapter of the D.A.R., by the McCormack Historical Association, by the United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission, The United States Library of Congress, the United States Senate, and the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The Board also extends its thanks to Mr. Bates Torrey for two hand-made maps of old Weymouth.

They are grateful to other libraries for gifts of bulletins and reports, and for the generous service of neighboring libraries in loaning books on an inter-library loan arrangement. The Tufts Library has loaned books to the Thayer Library in Braintree, and has borrowed books from libraries in Boston, Brockton, Brookline, the Boston Medical Library, and the State Division of Public Libraries.

To the neighbors and friends who have brought gifts of flowers from their gardens we are very grateful. The flowers were beautiful, and were much appreciated by both the readers and the library staff.

We are facing a new year of library work; perhaps we are at the beginning of a new era in all our economic and social relationships. The library must adjust to changing conditions and must meet the challenge of new opportunities. Its work is no longer experimental. It is an educational medium; a part of the developing movement for adult education; and a wholesome source of free recreation and of cultural development. It is one of the main channels through which the increased leisure of the people can be directed toward constructive living.

Respectfully submitted,

C. P. WHITTLE

Town Accountant

REPORT OF THE TOWN ACCOUNTANT

East Weymouth, Mass., January 31, 1935

To the Board of Selectmen

I submit herewith the thirty-third annual report of the Accounting Department which makes available the pertinent facts relating to the finances of the Town of Weymouth.

Should more detailed information than that appearing in this report be desired it will be gladly furnished to anyone who will come to my office.

The accounts of the several town officials have been examined frequently during the year, all bank balances verified monthly and the cash and securities of the town examined and found properly accounted for.

The appended statements reveal some interesting facts. The Town of Weymouth has conducted its affairs on the "Pay-as-you-go" policy for several years and under the conditions of recent times it is with considerable satisfaction that we can point to the fact that our budget has been balanced every year without resorting to extensive borrowing, which would have eased the pressure for the present but reflected an increase for interest and debt retirement costs in the future.

In my opinion the "Pay-as-you-go" policy has been found the proper course to pursue in ordinary times. I see no reason, however, for the real estate tax payers of to-day to carry the excessive load of Public Work expenditures to relieve unemployment and distress as well as liquidate the debt incurred during previous years for public improvements which serve the people over a long period of time. Some source of revenue, other than taxes on real estate, should be made available to ease this burden.

The average tax rate for the past ten years has been $24.51 which is much lower than the average rate for the Commonwealth. Were it not for the cost of Public Welfare, Soldiers' Benefits, Old Age Assistance and the South Metropolitan Sewerage Assessments the 1934 tax rate for Weymouth would have been under $20.00.

The net debt of the Town is $716,000 which is less than it was in 1928, while the borrowing capacity in the same period has doubled from $354,999.60 to $711,779.73.

Surplus Revenue has increased over $50,000 to $184,786.09, and the uncollected taxes are at a figure much below that of a year ago, the result of efficient administration by the Tax Collector.

The problems confronting the department heads during 1934 were many and varied. The allotment of funds by the Federal Emergency Relief Administration with the demand that all material costs be met by the Town was extremely embarrassing as this feature was not properly considered before the Annual Town Meeting. The alternative of either supplying the necessary material costs of projects or refusing the Federal funds which would definitely reduce our welfare and relief costs resulted in a co-operative effort by several departments to furnish materials for such projects as were approved. Some of the projects completed were of a permanent nature, the departmental appropriations being adjusted to meet the emergency conditions with which the Town was confronted. In many instances the use of the Federal funds for maintenance work made available money which could be expended for material costs on constructive projects.

The ability of the department to promptly furnish vital information of a financial nature is to a large extent the result of efficient and painstaking effort by those connected with this office.

Yours very truly,

EMERSON R. DIZER,
Town Accountant

Weymouth, Mass.

January 31, 1935

EMERSON R. DIZER,

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH

To the citizens of the Town of Weymouth:

The Board of Health met and organized March 12, 1934. Joseph Crehan was elected chairman, F. L. Doucett clerk and Thomas MacDonald agent. George Marshall was appointed plumbing inspector, M. L. Loud milk inspector and Jeremiah Donovan care of public dumps. Katherine Pratt was appointed public health nurse.

The repeal of prohibition has added greatly to the duties of the plumbing inspector. In only a very few cases where licenses were granted was any sanitary provisions made for the use of the patrons. All these establishments were either brought up to the legal sanitary requirements or closed.

During the last few years the milk producers and dealers have been doing a great deal to improve the milk supply and to-day practically all the milk sold in Weymouth is pasteurized. This is a big forward movement and the milk producers and dealers are worthy of praise for the work they have done. All herds have been tuberculin tested and the reactors disposed of.

During the year the following contagious diseases have been reported:

Anterior Poliomyelitis	1	Mumps	10
Chicken Pox	36	Scarlet Fever	62
Dog Bite	53	Septic Sore Throat	1
Lobar Pneumonia	6	Pulmonary Tuberculosis	11
Measles	203	Tuberculous Meningitis	1
Whooping Cough		23

This compares favorably with other years except in the incident of dog bite which has increase from only 7 in 1932 to 53 in 1934. Four of those bitten were treated with rabies vaccine.

We strongly recommend that all dogs that are allowed to run loose are immunized against rabies.

Our chairman Joseph Crehan died November 20, 1934, after serving on the Board of Health for almost six years.

All who knew him and worked with him will miss his genial smile and his ever ready good humor.

We lost a true friend and a faithful servant.

At a joint meeting of the Board of Selectmen and the Board of Health, Daniel Clancy was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Crehan until the next March meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS MacDONALD
DANIEL CLANCY
FREDERICK L. DOUCETT
